LIMERICK,—JULY 10.

Monday morning, a meeting took place between two Captains in the Elgin Fencible Regiment, quartered in this City, at the Race Field, near Groody: after one of the Gentlemen fired his Pistol, the Seconds interfered, and we are happy to add an honourable and perfect reconciliation took place.

This day the Galway Militia, commanded by the Right Hon. Lord Kilconnel, were to march from Cork for this City, to do duty till further orders.

The Lady Mayorefs of London has been delivered of a Son. According to certain ancient customs, her Ladyship is on this occasion entitled to a Silver Cradle, and Baby Linen for her Infant, at the expence of the City, the Cradle costs upwards of 500l. Their Majesties, by charter, are to be the Sponsors. Sir Matthew Blackiston, (father to the present Sir Matthew Blackiston, late one of our Bankers,) is the last instance of having a child during his Mayoralty, and he was supplied by the City with these articles.
