LIMERICK.—AUGUST 14.

An order was given out yesterday by General Sir James Duff, Bart. to the Troops in this Garrison, to hold themselves in readiness to march hence at the shortest notice; in consequence of which all the Shoes that were to be found in the different Makers' shops were purchased for the Soldiers.

This morning one Company of the Galway Regiment marched hence for Nenagh.

We understand Government has given an order for to purchase two vessels in this River, to act as Gun-Boats, but whether to augment the present number, or be fitted here and sent to some other Port, we cannot ascertain: We should be sorry to furnish a diminution of the present number; in that case, from good authority we can say, the Town of Kilrush will feel a great loss—for, exclusive of the sums of money spent in that place, the orderly behaviour of the Sailors, added to the gentlemanlike conduct and liberal dispositions of the Officers, will make their departure, whenever it takes place, a subject of regret.

Monday last, Mr. John Houlihan, of Bridge-street, Glover, fell from his horse near Murroe, in the County of Limerick, and was unfortunately killed on the spot.

BIRTH. Last night, at her house near the Square, the Lady of the Rev. William Lewis, of a Son.

Sunday night last, on Merchants-quay, in an advanced age, Mr. Joseph Alps, father to George Alps, Esq; Attorney.—Monday morning in Mary's-street, suddenly, Mr. Terence Baggot, Shoemaker.—Same day, in said Street, Mr. Henry Beonis, Grocer, deservedly lamented by his family and acquaintance.—In Broad-street, much regretted, Mrs. Gilmer, wife of Mr. William Gilmer, Grocer.
