Capital.

It is with pleasure we announce to the Public, the formation of a Society in the City of Dublin, composed of a number of serious and respectable Clergymen and Citizens, for the more general diffusion of the Practical Knowledge of the Gospel of Christ throughout this kingdom. — Their address to the Public stating their object, detailing their plan, and inviting the friends of Real Godliness, of every rank, and of every denomination, to co-operate with them, in carrying into effect this benevolent, important, and necessary object, may be had at the Printer's hereof gratis; who has also for sale, a few copies of a Sermon preached at the last annual meeting of the Society, in which the subject is more fully discussed by the Rev. B. M'Dowel, D. D.

On Saturday evening last, a man of the name of Walter Dalton, was apprehended by the Sheriffs of this City for passing a forged National note; on his being searched, another was found secreted in his hat, on which he was committed to gaol by Sheriff Watson: shortly after which, Sheriff Carroll went to his lodgings in Mary-street, and discovered in a breeches of his, twenty-nine other forged National notes, which Dalton afterwards confessed he bought in Dublin, at the rate of seven Guinea Forged Notes for a real Guinea.
