LIMERICK,—OCTOBER 19.

On Thursday night a party of armed men broke into the Dairy of Lieur. Moore, at Newcastle, near this City, beat the Dairyman and his wife, and swore them not to sell new milk at a greater price than they mentioned:—A watchman, who had secreted himself in an adjacent quarry, counted 26 horses, on each of which were mounted three of the before mentioned banditti.

The utility of that excellent Charity, the FEVER HOSPITAL, was never so truly experienced as in the course of the two last months, during which time 35 have been admitted in dreadful Fevers, of whom 20 have been sent home to their Families; 7 are so far recovered as to be in the convalescent Wards; 6 still confined to their beds, and two died; one of whom only lived for a few hours after her admittance.
 Surely such a useful institution will not be let drop in the City of Limerick, for want of a Fund to carry it on.
