

point George Evans Bruce, Esq., Hermitage, High Sheriff for the County of Limerick, for the ensuing year.

We have the pleasure of recording in this day's paper, one of the most gallant and enterprising actions of this war, in which Captain Hamilton, his officers and crew, rescued the Hermione. A Passage bestowed on Captain Hamilton, already enabled by this valor, would be a just tribute of national gratitude.

The armed ship Kitty, Captain Pince, from Jamaica bound for Liverpool, put into this River on the 24th inst. by contrary winds; about ten days before her arrival in the Shannon, Captain Pince fell in with the ship Swarrow, Captain McFee, from Barbadoes also bound for Liverpool, in a most distressed condition, her pumps were constantly going but could not keep the vessel free; Captain Pince with great humanity kept company with the Swarrow for three days, in order to give them every assistance; at length Captain McFee bailed the Kitty, and requested Captain Pince to come on board him, which he readily complied with, and after consulting him and his Officers, the sea running very high and blowing hard, it was determined that the passengers and crew, 70 in number, should quit the Swarrow; Captain Pince proceeded immediately to bring them on board the Kitty, at much hazard, and with his personal attendance, he executed the task. In less than two hours the melancholy scene presented itself of the Swarrow's going down; Captain McFee was the last that with much reluctance parted the ship.—Captain Pince landed the passengers and crew at Tarbert, after ten days hospitable treatment; the passengers per the Kitty also landed here, and proceeded this morning for England, via Dublin.—The passengers per the Kitty were, Mr. Mack, Commissary of Ordnance, Mr. Skeys; Lieutenant Stewart, of the Navy; and Mr. Symes.—The Kitty, a few days before her arrival in the Shannon, was obliged to throw several of her guns overboard.

I Think it proper to correct an error in a Paper, where you insert the names of two of my nephews, William Maffy, jun. Glenville, and Charles Maffy, Glenville, as opposers of the Union. They could not have given their signatures for, or in opposition to that measure, as they are, and have been for a length of time engaged in the service of their King and Country in the West Indies; the former a Lieutenant in His Majesty's 57th regiment on board the King's frigates, L'Unité. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, HUGH MASSY. Glenville, Jan. 26, 1800. (2p)

WHEREAS there was a most outrageous and violent attack made upon my House of L'Unité, on the evening of Thursday the 16th of Jan. between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock, when two men forcibly entered the back door, one of whom fired a shot at me, dangerously wounding me in the hand and arm, whilst others broke in the windows with large wooden sledges, (brought for the purpose, and left behind them upon their repulse, being many flung into the house). I will pay for the discovery and prosecution, on conviction, of any one of those concerned in this daring outrage, One Hundred Pounds; and to any Person giving privately to me, or any neighbouring magistrate, such information as may lead to the apprehension and conviction of any one of them concerned Fifty Pounds, and should any such (except the person who fired at me) give informations against his accomplices, he shall be entitled to the reward upon the conviction of the first of them, and my best efforts shall be used for his pardon.

The Sun Insurance Company, DUBLIN.

AMONG the numerous Inventions invented by mankind, none have been of more real utility than Insurance against the risk of loss and damage by that destructive element Fire.—By paying a small sum annually many families have been protected from utter ruin, who otherwise might be exposed to poverty and wretchedness.

For this salutary purpose a Society of Gentlemen have formed themselves into a Company to extend the benefit of Insurance to Ireland, after the plan of the Sun Fire Office, London, the first office in the world for liberality and extent of business, and the premiums held out to the public being on such a moderate scale, every person who has any property may be secured at a very small expense; and in order to render the security unexceptionable, the sum of One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Pounds is subscribed as a fund for that purpose.

Table of Annual Premiums to be paid for Insurance.

	Common.	Hazard.	Doub. Haz.
100 to 1000	2s. per cent.	3s.	5s.
1000 to 2000	2s. 6d.	4s.	6s.
2000 to 3000	3s.	5s.	8s.

By insuring for seven years an abatement of one year's premium and duty will be allowed.

The Company have also resolved to make Insurance on Lives and Survivorships. By the Insurance on Lives numerous advantages to persons possessed of Life Estates, Penions, or other Incomes depending on their own lives or upon the lives of others, in so far as by a certain annual sacrifice of a comparatively small part of such income, a comfortable provision may be secured for a wife, children, or dependant, who, but for such provision, would be left destitute upon the death of the proprietor of such life income, or the
