important manner, for he would not be back time enough to vote in his place in Parliament against the Bill of Union .- He felt it incumbent on him to make this explanation to his fellow-citizens, and the more, as his motives for declining the honour which the Corporation intended him, had been milrepresented in a morning paper, and probably but for that mifreprefentation he would not have troubled the meeting, but have contented himfelf with the communication which he made by letter to the Corporation. His mind remained unchanged as to the measure of a Legillative Union, and he fully coincided with his fellow-cicizens in a cordial reprobation of force firective a project. Mr. Shaw then moved two refolutions, one acknowledging the expediency of petitioning his Majefty-and the other for appointing a Committee to form the fame-both being agreed to. the Committee was appointed-ind the perition. being framed, was read paragraph by paragraph, and unanimously agreed to. Several gentlemen were then appointed to receive fignatures, and the Meeting was then adjourned to Thursday pext at one o'clock, when the agnatures would be received and deputies appainted to prefent theil petition to his Majelty.

At a numerous meering, duly held at Long-ford on Thursday last, pursuant to notice from the High Sheriff, a petition to his Majefty was secreed to against the streafure of a Legislative Usion. It was moved by the Earl of Granard, feconded by Mr. Fox, and carried by a very large majority.
In the Recorder's Court on Tueflay let feveral persons received fentence to be transparred for feven years—of the number was Roger Far-rell, for stealing ten yards of fearles cloth. It appeared that the prifoner state this cloth out of the House of Lords, and when brought before the Magistrare, he consessed his guilt, but faid he thought there would be no more use for it.
