LIMERICK.—AUGUST 16.

CAPTAIN Bayler, of the 2d Fencible Cavalry, was tried on Wednesday last, at the Assizes of Waterford, for the alleged murder of Andrew Nash, Esq; in a Duel, when the Jury, without leaving the box, honourably acquitted him.

Several detachments, consisting of twelve men each, from the Fencible Infantry on this establishment, and more are daily expected, have arrived at Arblane; they are designed, we are informed, for a corps of sharp-shooters, whose to be embodied and disciplined for foreign service, under the direction of Brigadier-Gen. Scott.

It is with concern we are obliged to announce fresh instances of Cruelty, perpetrated in this neighbourhood:—

Last Tuesday night, Edward Rierdan, a very honest, industrious Farmer, who lived near Cullen, had his throat cut, and his brains beat-out, by a party of these nefarious miscreants who have long infested that part of the country.—On the same night, and in the same neighbourhood, Edmond English was ham-strung with scythes; Michael Ryan was to cut on the head, that his life is despaired of; and four others, the same night, were so maimed, by cutting their back sinews, as to disqualify them for any kind of labour.—From the suspension of the late sentences of Courts Martial, it is apprehended that these abominable wretches entertain an idea that they will escape that condign punishment so loudly called for, by their barbarous and unexampled atrocities.

On Thursday night last, a Banditti, supposed to amount to about sixty, mounted on horseback, went to the house of Thomas Lynch, of Cunnigar, in the liberties of this City, a snug, industrious Farmer, dragged him and his son out of bed, and flogged them unmercifully with cutting whips; the crime for which this punishment had been inflicted was, for Lynch having turned off a Dairyman.—The same party (it is believed), went to the house of James Coghlan, of Lifenauhta, and whipped him in like manner.—Other Dairymen, whose names we have been requested not to mention, were also whipped on said night.

Extract of a letter from a Gentleman at Castle Lloyd, Co. Limerick, received this evening:— “On the night of the 13th inst. or morning of the 14th, several shots were fired by a party of armed Rebels, within a quarter of a mile of the Barracks, occupied by a detachment of the Loyal Effix Fencibles; on which, the Sergeant of the Pique went off in that direction, found several houses in the neighbourhood of Cullen broken open, in one of which a man lay murdered, and ten more shockingly wounded, who it is thought cannot recover.—The Sergeant apprehended a man of the name of Thomas Ryan, whose stockings, breeches, and shirt, were all bloody.”

Resolved, that in order to render this institution of the utmost possible service to the Town, it appears highly expedient that every means in our power should be adopted to accommodate the greatest number of Peter Patients that the House can contain, without abandoning the other objects of the Institution.

That it appears to us this object may be attained, without incurring thereby any additional expense, and sufficient room be left for Patients of other descriptions, by removing the latter into the Wards now let apart for Fevers, and appropriating six Rooms in the main-building of the
