with vessels and a Danish brig, were captured by one of our cruisers of the Elbe, and sent for England; yet warranted in saying, that these vessels seizures are wholly unauthoritative.

On the 21st, the Danish Secretary of Legation conferred with the British and the Affairs on the morning of the 22nd, immediately after a report prevailed, that Mr. Murray, was about to resign. Certain it is, that an order suspended all intercourse with Great the several outward-bound vessels to wait farther instructions.

to have to fare, that the Lord of the passage from Canton, which the 11th of November, fell in with, and on the 12th was captured off Choduba by the French privateer, of 20 brass twelve-pounders. The Lord Clive had a cargo worth 80,000 dollars. The vessel had as one captured a ship named the "Lion," but as one of that name, commanded by Smith, lately arrived in Bengal on the 1st of January from Penang, there is some probability that the latter statement unfounded.

On the 11th of January, the French privateer, from Sredbury leaves no doubt of having been in Sredbury, and gives some account of that occurrence. It states, that the occurrence has lately taken place, and is arranged along with the vessel. The latter, being, and the vessel of the last week, had been in Sredbury more than eight days, and the flames were in different directions to the westward.

On Thursday and Friday the vessel was on that side the vale adjoining the estate at Wynntilly was supposed to be eight to ten miles, and on the 11th of August. A great number of the men employed in cutting trenches to the progress of this alarming configuration without complete success.

The intelligence from Portugal, subject of our readers on Saturday, the subject of much conversation. The respecting the French Government, the propositions for peace to the French, and on terms such as we stated in the paper mentioned in such a number of articles by the mail of Saturday, that the probability that the substance of the peace will be confirmed; and that the dispatches received the same day, respectively fact.

LIMERICK.—AUGUST 30.

Part of the detachment of Hompefch's Dragoons, which lately marched from this City for Cork, returned yesterday.

Thursday last arrived here the ship Enterprise, Captain French, and the brig Friends, Captain Grogan, both belonging to this port; the former from Dram, with timber and deals, and the latter from Dantzick, with timber and pot-ashes. —On the 26th inst. to the N. E. of Loop's-head, they fell in with a large armed brig, to all appearance an enemy, with a great number of men on her deck; she fired several times after them, and would have captured the Friends, had not the Enterprise been in company with her, whom she took to be a ship of war.

Thursday night, one of the window-shutters of the Widow Utshack's shop opposite the Mainsguard was forced open, and a paper, containing six pairs of stockings, stolen thereout; a Sergeant of the 45th Regiment on guard, apprehended the robber, who is now in confinement.

Last night, some villains placed a ladder to the lower first-floor window of Mr. Peppard's house, in Bridge-street, with a design to enter and rob the house, but were frustrated by the appearance of a Corporal of Hompefch's Dragoons, on duty at the adjacent Hospital—the men escaped, but a woman of the name of Molony, (who has been often tried for petty larceny) was apprehended and lodged in bridewell.
