 LIMERICK,—OCTOBER 15.
 From the arrangement in the General Post-Office, (as inferred in our last) the Mail Coaches are from this date to set out from Dublin at 11 o'clock each night, and to arrive here at the same hour on the following nights;—in consequence of which, we shall be enabled to publish this Chronicle as formerly at 2 o'clock on the evenings of Wednesdays and Saturdays; it is therefore necessary for such as have occasion to advertise, to send them in for publication to our Office, at least before 12 o'clock each day's publication, if previous to that time the better.— From the incredible Debts incurred, it is entreated no person, not having an account with the Proprietor, and in the habit of being punctual in payment, will send Advertisements for insertion, without offering payment.
 The Mail Coaches are in future to be proceeded by a Military escort and from Dublin;— six Corporals and twenty-four Privates of Hanniff's Dragoons, marched hence yesterday to be stationed at Nenagh and Kilmastulla, for the above duty.
 The Clannel Post to this City is also to be protected by a Military guard.
 Friday evening last, a man was found dead on the road at Sallowhead, near Cullen, Co. Tipperary;—he had two gun-shot wounds, which it is supposed he received from some villains who apprehend that he intended giving information against: on the deceased were found two guineas in cash, and a parcel of woollen stockings.
 The Soldier of the Clare Regiment, mentioned in a former Paper to have been accidentally shot by his comrade, died last Saturday.
 Sunday last several companies of Tradesmen, with their Masters and Wardens, (agreeable to ancient custom) attended the newly appointed Mayor, Ralph Wettrupp, jun. Esq. to the Cate-dral Church, after which they perambulated the City.
 Tuesday morning, Thomas Collopy, Thomas Slocum, Michael Houlihan, Thomas Houlihan, and John Moly, were sent from hence under an escort of the 46th Regiment, to New Geneva, from whence they are to be transported for life, pursuant to the sentence of a General Court-Martial.
 Yesterday, John Roach, Patrick Roach, and Thomas Ryan, were tried by the General Court Martial, of which Major Vandeclair is President, for the murder of Francis Connors, on the 12th of August last at Ardlemont, in the County of Tipperary.
 The Rev. A. Hill, acknowledges the receipt of a Guinea from A. B. for the Fever Hospital.
 MARRIED. Monday last, Mr. John D'ohery, Hat-maker, of Bridge-street, to the agreeable M^{rs}. Sarsfield, daughter to the late Mr. Maurice Sarsfield, of Thomond-gate, Brewer.
 DIED. Monday evening, after a lingering illness, Mr. Michael O'Meara, of Bridge-street, Viomer.
 However we may agree with that part of PAGANUS's well written Essay, wherein the distresses of the Poor is so pathetically set forth, yet an insertion of it in this Chronicle at this time, might be construed into an encouragement of further disturbances.
