

atch received overland yesterday at the us, via Bassorah, dated the middle of last, throws some light on the plan of intended to be pursued against the in Egypt.—By this conveyance we have a confirmation of the Intelligence which announced, of a detachment of the Army, having been ordered to prepare for the purpose of proceeding to of Babelmandel, to make an attack enemy's positions at Suez, while Geneerombie, with the army under his commands a vigorous assault upon the side of is. Some important advices may there-shortly expected from that quarter.
 We have the pleasure to learn, that great joy prevails in our newly acquired province of India, and that the hostile native powers are expected to settle in an amicable manner differences which have of late subsisted between them.

er from Constantinople, dated Nov. 10, General Menou has received intelligence of the battle at Marengo, and the victories in Germany, which news he celebrates by several festivals. Murad Bey and no longer maintain a good understanding with other. Neither in Egypt nor Syria engagements had taken place with the The Captain Pacha, who was on the returning with his fleet from Candia to Constantinople, has received counter-orders, in consequence of dispatches which the English Ambassador here, Lord Elgin, has communicated.— Yesterday the Russian fleet, under the command of Ushakov, sailed from the Canal for the Black Sea."

Paris Journals assert positively—that the King of Bavaria is upon the point of concluding a peace with the French Republic.
 Some Editors assert, though certainly without authority, that Lord Wycombe has been sent to make some overtures to the French Government, "he being the son of the worthy Nobleman under whose auspices the late peace between France and Great Britain was brought to a conclusion."

Journal de Paris copies the following passage from the Journal of the department of the Moselle, in which Luneville is situated:— The opening of the Congress is announced for the 1st of next month; and this news has excited the liveliest sensations of joy at Luneville.— The telegraph has already given notice of the approaching arrival of several Plenipotentiaries to the place, and the greatest activity is employed in fitting up the House intended for the use of the Imperial Minister. It is even reported that the Emperor will be present at the of the 46th Regiment, but the Woman unfortunately perished.

We are sorry to hear that two Turf-boats, with their Crews, were unfortunately lost some night in our river.
