LIMERICK, — APRIL 1.

An order has been received to raise two additional Companies for the 46th Regiment, quartered in this City.—[See Advertisement.]

Mr. Thomas Burgh, of Rathkeal, Attorney, and Mr. Robert Cripps, of Limerick, are appointed Replevinders for the County of Limerick.

Jeremiah Reirddon, Yeoman, Jere. Houragan and Edward Houragan, black-Smiths, and John Gammell, constable, all of Cahircounish, were found guilty at our Assizes, of forcibly and unlawfully preventing Patrick Gillmer from taking Potatoes to a distance from their neighbourhood. This prosecution was avowed by Mr. Bruce in Court to be carried on, not for the purpose of punishing the unfortunate prisoners, who, he well knew, acted under the orders of their Superiors, but to show Magistrates that they ask for Military protection in support of unlawful authority at their peril: Mr. Justice Day fully rated the law, and objected to the justification of the prisoners, either the orders of a Magistrate or General for such illegal conduct. We hope to give to the Public the Judge's solemn Charge on this subject, as it must prevent any further impediment to the free transport of Potatoes from one part of the kingdom to any other part of it.

Saturday evening the Assizes ended, and next morning the Judge set out for Tralee.

In the County Court, Maurice Hoare and John Hoare for uttering forged Bank Notes, were sentenced to be hanged:—these two men were convicted at the last Assizes, upon evidence that the signatures were marked from a copper-plate and not by hand-writing, and this not being conformable to the usual proofs of a forgery, namely, by the witness swearing that he was acquainted with the hand-writing of the person supposed to have signed the note, and that the signature was not of his hand-writing; the Judge, who tried the prisoners, respited judgment, until the opinion of the Twelve Judges, whom on consultation over-ruled the point saved.

Patrick Dooiry, John Makasy, Patrick Leahy, and Thomas Leary, for a burglary and l felony in the dwelling-house of James Barry, at Abernabrock, to be hanged

John Mullane and Thomas Dinahan, for stealing Potatoes, were burned on their hands.

Stephen Brow, for the murder of the Roland's at Manister, to be hanged.

James Kennelly, for having a forged note in his possession, with intention of uttering it, to be imprisoned twelve months, and give security for his good behaviour.

Andrew Mortill, for feloniously robbing in a dwelling-house, to be hanged, but respited.

Four persons convicted of forcibly taking pota-
...roes from strangers who had come into their pa-
...rish to purchase them, were fined, but it appear-
...ing they offended by mistaking the Law on that
...head, their fines were reduced.
