doubts, but the prospect is not now so bright as it first appeared.

troops from various parts of France speak of considerable bodies of troops on the Spanish frontier. General St. Cyr is and it is said that the plan of the campaign was settled by him.

French army of observation in Italy, is represented in a friendly manner over the person of the King of Naples! General Murray addressed a curious proclamation to his army on this occasion, in which he declaims against the English nation. He enjoins his soldiers to respect the laws, usages, and prejudices of the people among whom they live, and tells them they are not called on to be the reformers of the world!

French Tiers Consolides are 54 francs.
It is reported, that the Elbe continues shut to the English, a circumstance which may prevent the non-arrivals of the Hamburg mails, the wind has been so very fair.

DUBLIN, APRIL 30.

A man from London says, that the regiment bound for the Mediterranean, but for the East Indies, under the escort of a strong squadron of ships of war.

The Lord Chancellor gave audience at the Castle on Friday and held a Privy Council, when shipping business was transacted.

The Council ordered two proclamations to be issued offering a reward of 500l. for the capture, and 200l. for each of the next two years apprehended and convicted of robbing the Mail, and murdering Mr. Blood;— 100l. for each of the first three persons brought to justice for the murder of Mr. R. a farmer, and his sister Jane Johnson, of Killedale, in the co. Antrim.

On Monday morning, a respite was sent off to Mr. Napper Taddy, until the 28th of late Quarterly Examinations held in the City, the following Young Gentlemen obtained certificates:—Mercer, sen. Mr. Muffin-son, Mr. Daly, jun. Sherlock, Creed, jun.,

Mr. MASSY DA

WITH every sentiment of gratitude returns his most warm thanks to his numerous, independent, Friends in the Co. of Limerick, for intending by their distinguished choice of proper Person to represent that County in the Imperial Parliament of which, the last period of his life is obliterated from his mind; and for lamenting that unforeseen circumstances had interrupted his acceptance of the office in Person that flattering testimony they have been pleased to bestow by their unqualified and unanim-

To the Independent E
COUNTY OF CL

Disclaiming any design in thus prematurely addressing disclaiming the very idea of proposing any political topic, I presume to give your notice at this moment; because the several approaches made by others in other quarters, that I might in that high respect, I shall ever be to you, and neglectful of my individual I at this time to omit doing so.

To Represent your County is my pride, and ambition, and are the strongest feelings for you fare, by which I am actuated.

In reverting to the circumstances and Family having represented such an usurpation upon your reputation as to suppose it could breed your favourable consideration; hereditary claim upon an Independent if it exists at all, it exists in me.

No idea can be more revolting to excite contest by party, and more sincere than mine to preserve the tranquillity of the County, but encouragement I have received independent and leading interest to declare that I am determined in eliciting the distinguished honor of you in Parliament, by an appearance free and unbiassed sentiments.

London, 12th April, 1801.

To the Gentlemen,
Freeholders of the
LIMERICK;

GENTLEMEN,

I should not at this probable General Election, feel myself in presenting myself a Candidate for you
