Culhane, who was found guilty by a General Court-Martial, and sentenced to receive 1000 lashes, and be transported for life, (as before inserted), was on Tuesday conveyed to Foyne's Island, in the Duff Gun-vessel, and on Wednesday escorted to Shanagolden, by a party of the 1st Dragoons, and met at the Fair-place by Capt. Waller's Corps of Kenry Cavalry, Capt.
William Maffy's Lower Connelloe Cavalry, and the Knight of Glin's Cavalry, where the culprit received 175 lashes, part of his sentence, in presence of a vast concourse of Country People, brought together in consequence of it being the Fair day.

Four men of the name of Ahern, will be tried on Monday next by Court Martial, for murder.

A dark brown Horse has been in the Pound of Parteen, above a month; he will be sold at said place on Wednesday next (if not claimed), for his expences.

DIED. On Wednesday last, in Mary's-street, much regretted, Mrs. Franks, relict of the late Thomas Franks, Esq; of Maidstown, Co. Cork.
—Yesterday, on the Lock quay, Mrs. Lacey, relict of the late Mr. Thomas Lacey, and sister to the Right Rev. Dr. McMahon.—A few days ago, sincerely lamented, at Tralee, the Rev. Mr. Egan, many years Parish Priest of that town.

A CARD.

Mr. LALOUETTE, Riding-master, with every mark of grateful deference, entreats those Ladies, his Scholars, and the Public in general, who did him the honour to Patronize him, and attend on his Benefit Night, Thursday last, (at the Circus,) to accept of this public profession of thanks, for their liberality and flattering preference on the occasion; and assures them, that it ever will be his most ardent and persevering endeavour to render himself worthy of their patronage,—and which it is the greatest pride of his heart to acknowledge.—Olympic Circus, Cornwallis-street,
