The Aherns who had been tried last week by General Court-Martial, were capitally condemned and sentenced to Death, which sentence was confirmed by the Lord Lieutenant, and ordered to be carried into execution; but in consequence of the earnest request and recommendation of our humane Military Commander, General Sir James Duff, their punishment has been remitted for Transportation.

Yesterday Thomas Brown, and three of the Aherns, were taken from our Provot Prison, by Military escort to Cork, from whence they are to be transported for life.—Mathias Ahern, the fourth Brother, has been liberated by Gen. Duff.
