LIMERICK.—JUNE 27.

Some Magistrates and others having lately sent prisoners to this City without even a charge against them in writing, and where, in different instances, the charges made have appeared unsupported; Sir JAMES DUFF requests Gentlemen will in future come forward in person to give such assistance as will enable him to bring prisoners to Trial, the number of those already in custody being attended with much inconvenience. June 24, 1801.

Thursday last the Yeoman Corps of this City were inspected by General Duff, on the Custom-House Quay, pursuant to an order from Government—considering that at this Season most of the Gentlemen who compose those Corps, are absent from this City on business or health, their ranks were well filled.

Proceedings of the General Court Martial since our last:—Thursday, Dennis Broder, John Broder, John Connor and Pat. Molony, were put on their trial for conspiring to rob and murder Wm. Brown and several others on the 19th of April last—adjourned to Saturday.—Friday, finished the trial of Patrick Molony for the attack on Rev. Mr. Galway, sentence not announced.—This day, according to adjournment, the two Brothers, Connor and Molony went into their defence;—adjourned till Monday.—No evidence on this trial for wilful and corrupt perjury was committed this evening to Gaol.

MANAGED.—This day, at Cooltra, the seat of her Brother, William Johnson Harre, Esq;—Richard Peard, of Coole, co. Cork, Esq; to the very amiable Miss Harre, daughter to Colonel Richard Harre.

DEPART.—Yesterday, in Nicholas-street, Mr. Thomas O'Connor, Publican—an honest Man! PORT-NEWS, June 24.—Arrived the Caerphilly-packet, Davis, Lenny, bark;—John, Evans, ditto, ditto;—Bee Ventura, Simons, Sr. Ditto, ditto;—Presidence, Thomas, Lenny, bark.
