use his own interest to their benefit, in consequence of which the Culprits has had their sentence mitigated to Transportation for Life.

An Act received the Royal Assent the 20th of June last, which says, that three weeks from the passing the Act no person in Ireland shall sell spirituous liquors by retail on a Sunday, on penalty of Five Pounds; one half to the prosecutor, and the other half to the Church-wardens of the parish. By this Act, no publican can sell spirits in Ireland to-morrow, (Sunday), or any Sunday hereafter, on any part of the day, without being liable to the penalty.

We have observed within these few days past, a mischief done to the Publick, which could only be perpetrated by those who delight in wickedness—that is, the throwing off into the River the Coping of the several Bridges in this City: As the Chief Magistrate will duly reward any person giving correct information against the Offenders, we hope shortly to announce that some of those nightly Despoilers may by sentenced to Flagellation at the Cart's tail.

Yesterday Patrick Molony was executed at Abington, pursuant to sentence; his corpse was brought back to this city, and interred in the New Gool Ground.—The two Keoghs were flogged by the Drummers of this Garrison at said place, and afterwards enlarged,—it is hoped that their confederates will be impressed with a little of their feelings, so as not again to resume the tormenting of their fellow-creatures in the same barbarous manner practised in this County.

This day the following Court-Martial returned their seats in the City Court:

Major D. Campbell, 46th Foot, President—Major Drummond, 46th Ditto, Captain Selby, 46th Ditto, Captain C. Campbell, 46th Ditto, Captain Bridgman, Clare Regiment, Lieutenant A. Campbell, 46th Foot, Lieut. J. Kearney, 46th Ditto; Capt. R. James, Judge-Advocate;—and proceeded on the trials of the famous Captain John O'Neil, and Patrick M'Mahon, for administering unlawful Oaths, and selling Pikes in furtherance of the Rebellion.—The nominal Captain Gillowley and his accomplices, will be tried during the next week.

A Meeting of the Standing Committee of the County Limerick Hospital, is to be held at the Hospital on Monday next, to examine the Treasurers accounts, preparatory to a General Quarterly Meeting of the Governors and Governesses, to be held the day following at 12 o'clock.
