From the necessity of frequently Billetting the Troops quartered in this City, (the Barracks being found too small,) it may become an object worthy the consideration of several respectable Persons on whom Soldiers are Billeted, that by keeping the order of the High Constable, they must be reimbursed One Shilling a Week, which sum, tho' apparently trifling, will be found in the aggregate, of vast consequence to any Charity that they may direct; if no other person will take the trouble, on their being lodged with Mr. Watson, he will take care to procure an Order for their payment by the Commanding Officer.

Monday last the General Court Martial concluded the Trials of the five Men mentioned in a former paper.—On Tuesday, Michael Gilhooly and Timothy Crowe, were tried for assembling with others in the year 1800, and ordering and directing several illegal acts in furtherance of Rebellion.—Sentence not mentioned.

A few nights ago, William Holohan and John Conner, both of Fuxhall, in this County, (near Charleville,) were taken out of their Beds, and severely whipped, by a number of fellows,—one for having sold Potatoes above their regulated price; the other for having given information against persons who stole Timber.—We are sorry to be informed, that serious Riots have lately taken place about Ballyhoura Mountains; and on Monday last, the King's Post going from Limerick to Cork, was attacked and desperately beaten, by a number of Rioters, within 2 miles of Charleville.

FEVER HOSPITAL.—Now when Fever is so fatally prevalent among the Poor, that every Bed in the Hospital is occupied, and several are constantly applying for admission, the expences of the House are necessarily very great—greater than can be continued, if immediate assistance be not given to its Funds

Those who have any feeling for the sufferings of their Fellow-creatures,—any anxiety to check the progress of a Contagion, which threatens danger to every Rank,—are earnestly requested to send to the Rev. A. Hill, Treasurer, whatever aid they may be disposed to give WITHOUT DELAY.—N. B. Old Linnen is much wanted at the Hospital. Any person sending it there, will confer a benefit on the Institution.

Yesterday, detachments from the Galway, Kildare, Kilkenny, and Waterford Regiments of Militia, marched into this City, and this day proceeded to Athlone, to join the Brigade of Light Infantry.

Apothecary Business

JAMES PURCELL

WHO for several years conducted the most reputable Apothecary and latterly for S. Phillips, of this City, day opened shop No. 38, Mary-street, near the Change, where he has laid in a general and chosen assortment of Medicines of a pure and unadulterated quality.—He takes this opportunity of assuring the public, and his friends in particular, that he shall studiously endeavour to merit their countenance and support by the strictest attention to their commands, and to every duty connected with his profession.—PURCELL, at the same time flatters himself with the hope, that his acknowledged experience in business, will be as an additional, and no inconsiderable recommendation to the patronage which he respectfully solicits.—An Apprentice wanted

Grocery, Wine, & Tea

No. 8, Nicholas-Street.

P. MURPHY

VERY grateful for the support he has received, respectfully informs his friends and the public, that a selection of nice articles, of the above line, together with French Liquors, Fruits, Syrups, Anchovies, Olives, &c. has been made by him in Dublin with the greatest attention as to quality; and he trusts to hope for a continuance of that patronage which has been hitherto shewn him.

His mode of dealing will be found to be very advantageous to those who buy for themselves, being light profit to induce quick sale.
