

...had with persons intimate-with the subject of our Commer... understood that the different
... the war were sufficient to
... of regulating our commer... at present. But there was one ... which rendered it necessary for ... in a Bill, namely, the prohibition
... contained against correspondence ... therefore moved for leave to bring
... do away certain restraints upon ... by letter between persons re-
... country and persons in certain so-... es."—The motion was agreed to—
... was accordingly brought up—read ... in the motion of Lord Glenberrie,
... time, and committed for to-mor-... rardship gave notice, that he should ... propose that the Bill should go thro'
... and be sent to the Lords, as for
... as the utmost dispatch was necessary.

Wednesday, Dec. 2.
Committee of Supply, and Ways and Means put off till Friday.
Batesford rose to give notice, that ... the Holidays, to move for leave
... Bill of a most important nature.—
... on the present occasion, to state the ... Bill, because, though he was sure
... stent with equity, yet the Crown
... might not think it conformable to Law.
... of the Bill he meant to introduce was,
... alteration in the Bankrupt Laws. By ... as they now stood, a man who was ... tance to a Bankrupt could not come ... re of the dividends, if the bill became ... Bankruptcy; now it was most clear ... acceptance, that a man who was so ... acceptance, had as good a right to ... upon the dividend as any other per-
... he was clearly liable under his ac-... It was to remedy this defect in the ... he proposed to bring in the Bill.

... tonight a melancholy accident
... alongside the Achilles, of 84 guns, at ... The men having been paid wages
... money, a crowd of shore-boats were
... and the ship, with bum-boat women
... and Jews, wanting to get on board
... different wares. They were repea-
... d off by Lieutenant Mudge, the offi-... cker, who found some of the seamen ... endeavour to get into them, and ran from ... which was then under orders for sailing.
... seamen of the Achilles was with some ... boat alongside, and did not come on ... n ordered, which so enraged Lieut.
... at he threatened to fire at him, if he

On Monday night, the shop of Mr. Murphy, Grocer, corner of Newgate-lane, was burglar-iously enter'd in the same new mode as practiced at Mr. Ryan's on George's-quay, namely by applying a heated six-pound iron ball to the door shutters, and removing the bolts:—the Villains took a desk out of the shop which contained little value, and we are glad to add that they found but a trifling sum in the Till.—The Parishioners of St. Mary's have employed a Nightly Watch, which it is hoped will prevent similar depredateions.

Thomas Wells, who was lately tried by a General Court Martial for rebellious practices, at Tralee, is ordered to be Transported for Life;—he sets off to-morrow for New Geneva.

DEED. On Thursday evening, at his Lodgings near the Custom-House, James O'Connor, Esq; Colonel of the Loyal Nottingham Fencible Regiment of Infantry, quartered in the County of Cork; a Gentleman sincerely lamented by the Regiment he commanded, as well as by a numerous acquaintance.—Last Saturday in Cork, after a few hours illness, John Newenham Devonshire, of Kishannon, co. Cork, Esq.

PORT NEWS, Dec. 7.—Arrived the Hero, McCall, Irish, coals.—Sailed the Maiden, Thompson, London, provisions.

WANTED a HOUSEMAID, Enquire at the PRINTER'S. Dec. 8, 1801.

RALPH & THOMAS WESTROPP,

Have now for Sale, at their Stores adjoining the Custom-House Yard, Sail Cloth from No. 1,—8.
Cordage in Coils of all dimensions,
An extensive assortment of Bags and Sacks, Madeira WINE of superior quality, in Wood and Bottle, Flour of 1st and 3d Quality, with which they are regularly supplied.

And are in daily expectation of a Quantity of Teas, Hops, and Malaga Wine, all of which they will dispose of on very moderate terms.
(3P) Limerick, 9th Dec. 1801

From Memorandums found, since the decease of my very dear Son, JOHN WATSON, I find he had lent Money, Books, and other Articles, his Property, to some Persons whom he entertained a friendship for, in this City and Neighbourhood:—if there is a spark of honor in the Breasts of those whom he so obliged, I expect no further application will be necessary, to impel them forthwith to pay me, in order to my complying with the desire of the deceased.

A. WATSON.
Limerick, King's-Arms, Dec. 4, 1801

RUSSELL & BANKS.

1500 WANTED on unquestionable to P. Peacock, Esq; (3P) Limerick, Dec.

WANTS a Situation

Governess, who has lived table Families, instructs the English Geography, &c; understands brodery, and different kinds of the can be well recommended; a Power, sen. Dancing-Master, & hereof. (1P) Limerick,

WANTED

A Person to serve as Clerk a to attend the Church of person need apply but one who recommended.—Application to
Rev. R. Cox. (3P)

NOTICE

THOSE to whom the late M Iaran, Denis, stood indebted to furnish their Accounts or Mr. John O'Hallaran, jun. Co Connally, or Mr. James Canny those who are indebted to him, mediately to pay in their Acco above Gentlemen, otherwise without further notice.
(2P) Limerick

LINEN DRAPE

RICHARD ROSE has just r lin, with a new and ele every article in his line, which best terms, he is enabled to sell for ready money.
He begs leave to return than the public, for the great encour with since his commencement hopes from his future attentio ance of their support.
Patrick-street, Limerick

WANTED

A Man who can act as Ga well recommended. Ap (4P) Limerick

COUNTY OF

TO BE LET, for 3 lives, f March next, in such divisi upon, the following Lands, p William Westby, Esq; as lat Edward Carroll.
Cahismorohoe, arable and past Mountain and Bog
Barony of Clonderalaw, Gowerhass, arable and pastur Coarse Pasture and