LIMERICK, — DECEMBER 16.

On Monday last, pursuant to requisition, there was a numerous and most respectable Meeting of the Citizens at the Royal Club House, for the purpose of voting an Address to Lieut. General Sir James Duff, on his resigning the command of this District;—the Address, which was unanimously agreed to, and which appears in the day's Chronicle, best expresses the gratitude and affection which his conduct has impressed upon the Citizens of Limerick;—same time a Vote of Thanks was unanimously voted to Lieut. Colonel Uniacke, Brigade Major for this District.—With the Address, a Sword of 100 Guineas value, was unanimously voted to General Duff;—and a Sword, value 50 Guineas, to Lieutenant-Colonel Uniacke.—See Advertisement.

Tuesday, a vast concourse of the principal Gentry and Merchants, waited on Sir James Duff, and presented him with the Address voted the preceding day, to which he returned the answer that appears in this day's Paper.—We have no doubt but similar Addresses will be transmitted from the Counties of Kerry and Limerick, Nenagh, and every other part of the District over which Sir James Duff so long, and so meritoriously commanded.

We read in the last Bath Newspaper, of a Gentleman being fined 20s. for permitting his Ashes to be placed on the footway, before the Scavenger's Cart came to receive the same:— How many hundred pounds might be collected in Limerick, if similar Fines were inflicted?

A Meeting of the Governors of the House of Industry is to be held to-morrow at 12 o'clock, at the Dispensary. It is earnestly requested the Governors may attend, as business of importance to the very existence of the Institution, is to be laid before them by the Committee of Visitors.

BIRTH. On Tuesday last, the Lady of Lieut.
Marlay, 21st Light Dragoons, of a Daughter.

MARRIED. On Saturday last, Oliver Idell, Esq; of the Longford Militia, eldest son of Francis Idell, of Rockbrook, Co. Westmeath, Esq; to Miss Anne Creagh, daughter of James Creagh, of Corbane, in the County Clare, Esq.

DIED. A few days ago, at his house in William-street, as sincerely lamented as his acquaintance was extensive, John White, late of Lisowen, in this County, Esq;—he was the best of Husbands, a most affectionate Parent, and in the strictest sense, an upright honest man!—In William-street, this morning, aged 14 years, much regretted, Miss Helena Scanlan, youngest daughter to the late Michael Scanlan, of Ballin-aha, Esq.—Last night, at his Father's house, after a tedious illness, which he bore with patience and resignation, Mr. George H. Welsh, son to Andrew Welsh, of Newtown, Co. Clare, Esq.

MARKET PRICES THIS DAY.

Guineas, be presented to James Duff, as a Memorial of attachment to him, and of the service he has rendered to the Kingdom and this City in particular.

Resolved, that this Address of Sir James Duff, be published in all Newspapers, the Dublin Evening Journal, Sun, Courier, Caledon Glasgow Courier.

Resolved, that a Subscription be entered into for defraying the above Resolutions, and that the Gentlemen who have convened this Meeting, viz.
Messrs. Ryves and Mr. D'Esterre, be the Committee, for carrying the same into effect.

Resolved, that our Chairmen and other Gentlemen do assemble here at the hour of the forenoon of to-morrow, to do Sir James Duff with our Address.

Resolved, that the Committee do receive the Subscriptions to be applied to the same.

Resolved, that this Address be sent to Messieurs Thomas and Thomas and William Roche of the Limerick Chronicle in order that the same may be sent to the Citizens, together with their Thanks.

Resolved, that the Thanks given to Lieutenant-Colonel Uniacke for his prudent Conduct, during the Siege of this District, as well as on account of his suppressing Insurrection and restoring the harmony and affection between the Militia of Limerick, and that he be presented with a Sword of the value of Fifty Guineas.

The following Address was presented to

Lieutenant-General Sir J. Duff HAVING learned that the consequent upon a Peace Establishment allow the continuance of an Rank in the Command of this District, to express our Sentiment during the period of that which embraces five of the most important History of this Country.

That History will Record that not limited to the District of Limerick, were, as occasion required, in EFFECT. Under CIRCUMSTANCES of MANY EXERTION and CELEBRITY this Kingdom as required the services of those who were most distinguished in the Military Profession.

Of that which remains within our province, we are competent to speak. Your services in those intervals not occupied affords us at once the opportunity of expressing to you, and the inducement to do so.

Let it therefore be remembered (and we trust you will not forget) that when it pleased his Majesty, your other Visitations, to visit this Land, your Benevolence and activity and usefully directed affection, while with firmness continued to discharge the duties rendered more difficult from the uncertainty, and the hopes which it inspired.

Such, Sir, are the sentiments of five Years war...
