in the Boston Paper, of Dec. 20, we have following distressing intelligence from Port licain:—"Capt. Wadbury, of the brig m Pitt, arrived at New York on the first ; spoke the schooner Faine, from Port licain, out 14 days; the Captain of which d him that the Negroes had succeeded in Port Republicain by storm, and had put white men, women, and children, to the report was industriously circulated in the during the early part of the week, that a vention had been signed between Austria, , and France, containing articles injurious interests of Great Britain.—We have stu-y to say, that the Convention alluded to, olly confined to the business of the indem-, and does not in any manner refer to this try. We have much pleasure in being able d, that the best and most cordial understand-subsists between our Cabinet and those of na and St. Petersburg, and that Sweden Denmark are sedulous to improve the relatiof Friendship and Commerce which so happily exists between Great Britain and them.

le learns, through a channel of high respect-ity, that Ministry are in expectation of a lementary Treaty with France, previous to meeting of Parliament.

he 39th regiment, and the 5th battalion of ooth, who formed part of the garrisons of erara and Surinam, were, on the surrender oose islands, sent to Trinidad, to relieve the and 57th regiments, ordered to Europe.

he Williams, Vandyk, from Demarara, ard at Dartmouth, sailed from thence on the Dec. on which day the garrison was surren-d to the Dutch.

even Lieutenants of the Navy are to be ined Naval Knights of Windsor, next March, reward for their past services. This new olishment is ratified by his Majesty, and the ve gentlemen will then, and agreeably to a eathment of S. Travers, Esq; be in possess-of valuable landed property. Their place idence is a very complete building at Wind-the expence is upwards of 8000l.

On Tuesday night, as Mr. William Wood, hipman of the Princess Charlotte Indiaman, g at Deptford, last from Amboyna, was goon shore, he fell from between the lighter ship, and was unfortunately drowned. Every ention was paid without success. His body is yet found.

was yesterday determined, for the accommodation of the Commercial World, that the burgh Mails now lying at Harwich, should ent by the way of Scheveling; under the care confidential agents of the Post Office, as there forty Constables sworn in, among whom were many young Gentlemen of the first rank and fashion, the growing hopes of the County. The duty of their office was explained in both Baronies by Mr.

Grady, who attended to give the benefit of his professional assistance. The enrollments were numerous, and the farmers came forward with the utmost alacrity. In Lower Connelloe, the Constables were ordered to carry Staves, and upon the whole we may live to see the laws executed here with vigour, with dignity, and with constitutional precision.

The Magistrates, Gentlemen, Landholders and Farmers of the Barony of Upper Connelloe, met at Ballingarry on Wednesday last, and entered into Resolutions for the preservation of the Peace of that Barony, similar to those adopted by other Baronies in this County.—Conformable to those Resolutions, Petty Sessions of the Peace will be holden at Newcastle on Wednesday next, the 9th inst. from whence it is intended to adjourn them to Dromcolloher, for Wednesday the 15th, and to Ballyagan, for Wednesday the 22d inst.

The Providence, Brown, Master, from Liverpool for this Port, foundered off Ackle Head the 10th inst. Crew saved.

This day Mr. Ringrose, as Market Jutor, seized 52 loaves of bread, being very deficient in weight, which the Right Worshipful Joseph Sargent, Esq; Mayor, caused to be distributed among proper objects.

In the Address to General Morrison, which appeared in our last, the addition of Junior to William Massey, of Glenville, was a mistake.
