 est and most unprincipled classes of the nity, to unhinge and destroy the dearest valuable relations of society. To in-readier acquiescence to those views, and the profetyes of this abominable plan of they had declared, but he trusted had d falsely, that the country and most of ulous cities of the kingdom were ready to its execution.—It was, however, wisely by DIVINE PROVIDENCE for the hapof mankind, that the rashness of such de-generally proved the cause of their failure, consequences of such wicked plans fell y infliction upon the heads of those with they originated; they becoming, thus, the of those wretched and destructive consewhere all was false and hollow.—Such purposes, however zealously begun, gene-terminated in schemes of treachery against her; and the public redeemed from perils er motives acting upon the base delinquent, it was in the present instance, and the con-became frustrated by the instruments had conducted it to maturity. Had the al scheme upon the life of a Sovereign, edly the most dear to the affections of his s, of any that ever filled a Throne with s and justice, taken place, what dreadful calculable misery and horror might have diffused throughout this great Empire; such a calamity it had been providentially d, and while his Lordship congratulated with community on so signal an escape; cely thought it necessary to invite a people ed by the warmest loyalty, to acknowledge ous gratitude so great a proof of the pro-goodness of ALMIGHTY GOD!

h respect to the wicked contrivers of aborreason, it only remained for his Lordship to LIMERICK, FEBRUARY 16.

This City having increased both in point of extent and population, we highly approve of what our Chief Magistrate has done, in adding to the number of High Constables;—the services which many of this respectable body of Citizens have already rendered to the Community, are well known, to doubt their future vigilance:—the under-mentioned have been sworn in:—Charles Vereker, Esq; M. P.; John Prendergast Smyth, Esq; Alderman Francis Sargent, Robert Uniacke, Andrew Watson, Philip Russell, Edm. Morony, T. F. Wilkinson, A. C. Smith, ~~Wm. Murray~~, Lunham, Charles Keating, Edward Waller, Wm.

Yesterday morning, Sheriff Russell found on the Woman, committed to Gaol on Thursday last, the remaining part of the large Silver Sausc-Boat, which she had offered for sale, as mentioned in Saturday's Chronicle.

On Thursday the 17th Feb. Inst. there will be an ASSEMBLY, for the Benefit of the County of Limerick INFIRMARY, Patronised by the Hon.
 Mrs. Crosbie and Gen. Payne, Admission 3s. 9d.
 —It is many years since any demand has been made on the public, in favour of this very useful Institution; the object of that now made, is to procure a supply of Bedding, which the funds of the Hospital are totally unable to provide, and without which the benefits it has so long afforded to the Community, can no longer be continued,— Should the present appeal to the humanity of the public, prove unsuccessful, there is no other resource, but that of diminishing the number of Beds very considerably, a measure most earnestly to be deprecated, as the consequence of its being adopted, must prove highly calamitous to many of the sick and disabled poor. On such an occasion it is confidently expected, that many will contribute their aid, who are not in the habit of going to Assemblies, and that the necessities of a most benefacial Charity will not be pleaded in vain.

Benefactions from such as choose to contribute without taking Tickets, will be thankfully received by the Hon. and Rev. Dean Crosbie, Lancelot Hill, Esq; and Rev. William Hoare.
