Yesterday, in the County Court, Philip Upton and James Dee, were tried for a burglary and robbery, committed by them, in company with a number of men not yet apprehended, on the evening of Thursday, the 6th of January last. The Jury were composed of Gentlemen of the first character; after a trial which occupied above 9 hours in the closest investigation, and did honour to the upright Judge,—the Crown Solicitor, Sam.
Prendergast, Esq; who conducted the prosecution, and the able Advocates for the Prisoners,—they were found Guilty, and sentenced to be hanged at the usual place of execution. We never remember a trial in which a crowded Court, was so perfectly satisfied with a Conviction—it was that of even being acknowledged just, by the unhappy victims.

It is worthy of remark, that though very many
...and loyal men, condemned the precautions
...any desperate attack that might
...made on this City, on the night
...of the 6th of January last—it was clearly proved,
...during the above awful trial, by witnesses who
...as well as the confession of the
...such an attack was intended se-
...to be made, and that some of the very party
...Bourchier's house on that ...night, came so far as Ballynaguard, (within 4 miles of
