

...ter from the same place, a spe-
...present state and disposition of ...ope, in which they are all pre-
...from any new coalition. That ...likely to be much disputed.

has been very confidently repor...eror Alexander had been chosen his complicated affair, we see no ...esent business being brought to a ...s than three or four months. It Government like that of France ...ate of anxiety and alarm which ...d, and which is productive of so
...the one, and of so little compa...ge to the other. France, there-
...ut be desirous of such an interven...have the effect to prolong the dis-...would not be all. The complaints
...ent cannot be submitted to the ...ers, who must be judges and par...tion as to the ambition of the First ...bjects cannot be submitted to their
...As to guarantees, or such other ...cannot be a doubt that almost any ...leave them in their present unsi-

...e stated to have been received from ...ne colony is represented to be in a ...ition, the epidemic disease had ...d, and the losses occasioned by its ...e troops, had been supplied by the ...reinforcement of nearly 700 men
...ni-brigade.

...ed this morning from Holland, by ...that, on the 30th ult. the Dutch ...lished officially the intelligence we ...week, of orders having been sent ...on the 20th of Nov. for the evacu-...ape of Good Hope, which they
...in the possession of the Batavian

...er from Bourdeaux, dated the 20th
...he Amsterdam Courant, contains
...elligence:—

...we received accounts here, with ...that all the difficulties which had ...Spain and the United States of ...been completely removed. Spain
...e conduct of the Governor of New
...ven strict orders that every thing
...United States, shall be placed on ... This intelligence may be de...y the following letter that the ...rench troops into Holland is doubt-

...ose destined for Louisiana will pro-
...where they are.

...march 30.—A report is this day
...ne corps of French troops are actu...march towards our republic; but as ...is doubtful, more certain accounts ...for before we can give implicit cre-
...regard to the question of peace or ...g is still a profound secret. Dis-
...y arrived from Paris to the French
...ident here. Gen. Victor has gone
..., and will return hither tomorrow.
...ere, that under the present circum-transported for seven years.—Mary Askins was indicted for the murder of her husband; her trial was put off till next assizes.—Miles Fitzhenry, John and James Foley, were acquitted of the murder of John Gill, on the 20th of May, 1798, on Vinegar-hill.

The county Carlow regiment of militia are already nearly raised, composed of above one half of the men lately discharged from the same.

Irish Stocks, April 7, Gov. Deb. 5 per ct. 94.
Exchange—Dublin on London 12½ English Stocks (April 4) 3 per cent. Consols 63½

Tralee, April 5.—Yesterday morning a duel was fought at Ragh, contiguous to this town, between Richard Mason, of Castle-island, Esq; and Conolly Husley, of Dingle, Esq; when, after firing two shots each without injury, their friends interfered, which occasioned a reconciliation, and the parties returned to town in perfect amity.

Died.—Last week in this town, Mr. Michael Sheahan, teacher of mathematics.

LIMERICK, APRIL 9.

Thursday evening the Special Commission for this County terminated:—no capital Conviction took place.—Roger Meany, for stealing Bank Notes, was sentenced to be imprisoned twelve months;—
and Mathew Sperin, presented by the Grand Jury, is to be sent to serve on board his Majesty's Fleet.

From the regular attendance of the Jurors, no Fines were inflicted by either the Hon. Baron Smith, or Hon. Justice Osborne; who both set out for Dublin yesterday.

Yesterday the Right Worshipful Joseph Sargent, Esq; Mayor, seized and condemned 240 four-penny loaves of Bread, of bad quality, which had been served to the 17th Regt. of Foot;—the entire were distributed among the Widows in the City Alms-house, Confined Debtors, and poor Room-keepers, together with five spent Salmon, which his Worship seized same day.

Two Ladies in distress, acknowledge to have received by Wm. Gabbett, Esq; from the Grand Jury of this County, one guinea and half each.— The Grand Jury have also given 6 guineas to the Widow of Mortogh Abern, who was hanged.

The Widow of the Rev. Mr. Storey, at Bruff, acknowledges the receipt of five guineas from the Grand Jury of this County, by the hands of Charles Creed, Esq.

DIED.—Last night in Margaret-street, sincerely lamented, Mrs. Geary, relict of the late Mr. Wm.
Geary, Architect, and mother to Dr. Geary.

PORT NEWS, April 7.—Sailed, Seaton, Scott, Clare, balast; 8th—Concord, Bartec, Greenock, oats and oatmeal; Katty, Corry, Liverpool, oats and provisions; Pearl, M'Alister, Greenock, oats.

LIMERICK MERCHANTS' CORPS.

The Meeting of this Corps, as heretofore advertised, having been postponed, a general attendance of the Members is requested at the Bank, on Monday next, at 3 o'clock, when such Gentlemen as may be proposed, shall be Ballotted for.

April 9, 1803 THOS. MAUNSELL, Capt.

MOSS DEALS

THOMAS CUSSEN, Treasurer.

(1p)

April 9, 1803

To be Let, by the Year or Mo-Arthur's Quay, a Furnished House, with House and Stable; enquire at No. 7.

LIVERPOOL COAL.

RUSSELL and BANKS

Have just arrived to them, and h-Sale, at the Long Dock, a Cargo of Prime COAL. (3P) April 8,

AUCTION OF FLAX-SEED.

HARVEY and FISHER purpose by Auction, at their Stores, adjoining the House-quay, the 12th of this month, at 12

300 Hhds. New York Flax-seed imported this Season.—Terms at sale.
Limerick, 6th of 4th, 1803

MARK KENNEDY requests a of his Creditors, at his House, on Sandaast. (2p) Limerick 6th April,

Mr. MAHONY and Mr. HUNT disagreed respecting clauses of Lease to be the latter Gentleman of the Lands of and Islandstehy, Mr. Mahony is obliged that he will Let both Farms, which are rior quality, and within two miles of the Limerick, for three lives, or for ever, 1st of May next;—and wishes to close rent tenant, on or before Sunday next, inst. (c) April 6, 1803

The Rathkeale Bazaar will com-Monday the 5th of July:—Articles at large time. GER. BDENNERHA
GEORGE FOSBERY
March 26, 1803 (3p)

To be Let, in County of Cork, N Pery, the House and Moat, with Ye house, Stable, and Coach-house, &c. pied by Capt Warburton.—Application BOLD, Apothecary. (2p & 2s) Mar

To be Let, from the 1st day of M for Three Lives, or such other term as agreed upon, the House and Lands of M with extensive Office, and a large wall den, the whole containing about 35 Ac within one mile and an half of Limerick.

Proposals in writing will be received by Maunsell, Esq.

N. B.—To be sold, 20 Tons of well-sa on the premises. 2p April 8,

Brevety.

PATRICK M'NAMARA will let his at Newtown-Jerry, with an excellen Ground adjoining, also, Six Acres of the Corbally, and Eighteen of the Lands of P the Ground and Situation so well know renders it unnecessary to make any furt ment on them. A Lease for ever can be the Entire. Limerick, 4th