LIMERICK, MAY 7.

We hear that General Morrison, who lately commanded in this District, is to be appointed to the Government of Canada, North America.

On Monday last Edward Croker, of Grange, Esq's. ch. colt, carrying 8lt. 7lb. beat George Folbery, Esq's. ch. filly, carrying 8lt. 1lb. one two mile heat, over the course of Rathkeal.

Wednesday evening, a detachment of the Clare regiment, under the command of Lieut. Harrison, arrived in town for the purpose of conveying from this depot, a supply of ammunition.

Thursday night a number of villains assembled near Tory-Hill, and broke into some houses, the owners of which they obliged to give up their horses, saddles, and bridles, for that night's excursion.

A Lady, who in the early part of her life had different prospects, has been by a variety of misfortunes, reduced to the greatest distress, implors the assistance of the Benevolent and Humane, to enable her to support herself and Husband, both rendered by age and infirmity, unable in any way to earn a subsistence. Benefactions will be thankfully received by Mr. Watson, Proprietor of this Paper.

Since last publication, Mr. Watson received for the above aged couple, from a Gentleman 11s. 4½d. and from an unknown person, per Mr. J. F. 11. 2s. 9d. From two Gentlemen this day 11. 14s. 1½d.—Total received, 31. 19s. 7½d.

MARRIED.—On Saturday last, at Kilmastulla Church, Thomas Going, of Moneyquil, county Tipperary, Esq; to the amiable Miss Rebecca Going, second daughter to Richard Going, of Bard-hil, in said county, Esq.

DIED.—The 28th ult. in London, Mrs. Shearer, relict of the late Alexander Shearer, Esq; M. D. of this city, and mother to Henry D'Esterre, Esq; Barrister at Law: a Lady very deservedly lamented by her numerous family and respectable acquaintance.—On Tuesday last, in Tipperary, William Hammerly, Esq; sincerely regretted.—Yesterday at her house on Arthur's-quay, Mrs. Croker, aged 73 years, relict of John Croker, late of Raleighstown, in this co. Esq; a Lady whose universal charity and religious observance of every relative duty, renders her a very sensible loss to her friends and respectable family.
