Tuesday se'night died, at Bilerough, co. Kerry, Robert Hilliard, Esq; aged 86. The calamities of this family has been very severe. About a month ago, Mr. Hilliard buried his son Robert, aged 26; and last week his son Henry aged 24. The father was remarkably healthy before the decease of his sons;—but burying two from under his roof in so short a period, worked so powerfully upon his aged frame, that he sunk under his afflictions, and ended a long life of probity under poignant sorrows. His widow survives the loss of a husband and two sons in a few weeks.

DIED.—Last Saturday night, in Mary's-street, Mr. Whitshed Moleworth, Lieut. in the Royal Navy, son to the late Captain Moleworth, of the 38th Regiment.
