ed, That we are determined, not only to e Peace of this County, but to resist the of an Enemy, whose progress has every n marked by carnage, plunder, and vio-d whose insolent menaces, may incense, ever intimidate a People animated by their s of the brilliant success which attended every former conflict with the French d, That we have the most perfect cond satisfaction in the General Officer vernment has appointed to the command strict, and that we will co-operate with aying the County, and in making such s as he may direct.

d, That the following Address be signed
