The Printer of this Paper had the honor of receiving the following important Note this morning, from B. General Payne, which he caused to be printed in Hand-bills, and dispersed through the Town and Country:—"Brigadier-General Payne's compliments to Mr. Watson, and informs him, that he has just received an Express from B. General Dalrymple, at Castlebar, stating, that the frigates which anchored in Shallow Man Bay on Thursday morning, supposed to be French, and full of troops, turn out to be British, which put in there for fresh Water."

Since our last Mr. Ringrose, Market Juror, seized 38 loaves of Bread, deficient in weight, or bad in quality; which the Rt. Worshipful Arthur Vincent, Esq; Mayor, ordered to be distributed to proper objects.

On SUNDAY next, the 23d instant, at St.
Mary's Church, will be preached by the Rev.
JOHN GRAVES, Rector of Ballingarry, the Annual SERMON, in aid of the Female Orphan School, wherein Fourteen Children are maintained and educated.

For this, the only Protestant Establishment supported by voluntary Subscriptions, in this City, for the Education of the Children of the poor, it is hoped the public will not be backward to contribute their aid;—their liberal encouragement on this occasion is essentially necessary towards upholding an Institution calculated to produce the most important advantages, and which is almost entirely dependant upon the collections thus annually made for its support.

If to relieve unprotected and desolate childhood from extreme penury, and wretchedness; if to rescue from the paths of infamy and vice, the friendless female; if to habituate youth to industry, and endue the tender mind with sentiments of piety and virtue; if these be objects of importance in the estimation of the people of Limerick, the Governesses of the Female Orphan School will not sue in vain.—Donations from such as cannot attend the Sermon, will be thankfully received by the Rev.
Archdeacon Hill; Colonel Lefroy; Lant. Hill, Esq; the Printer hereof, and the Rev. William D. Hoare, Treasurer.
