

Two Dutch Mails have arrived. They bring accounts of great inundations having taken place in different parts of Holland, in consequence of the breaking up of the ice.

American papers to the 21st ult. have also come to hand: and Paris Journals to the 4th inst.

The Paris papers are principally occupied with the discussions on the Civil Code. The Moniteur contains some curious remarks on the late trial of M. Polver. It seems to have given offence to the French Court instead of constituting, as many expected, a subject of derision. Papers present an interesting paper on the motion of the Committee of Commerce and Manufactures, upon that part of the Message of the President of the United States, which relates to the raising and countervailing duties on the goods of the British Parliament, respecting

... to be called to the House of Commons to receive a pension adequate to the services he has rendered to his country. The post of the French Ambassador to Ireland, it is added, is to be abolished.

DUBLIN, MARCH 10.

... experienced this morning a fall of about one per cent. We know of no reason for such a fall. ... was attributed to a rumour of a change of ministry—a rumour too absurd to deserve notice.

At the City Assembly on Tuesday, an Address of Congratulation to His Majesty upon his late providential deliverance, was ardently and unanimously agreed to.

Canal, March 7.—About the commencement of the Affairs we hope to be able to lay before the public, a most satisfactory document respecting the New Canal, intended to connect the River Shannon with the Lee. We have already, in a former paper, stated the levels and course of the Canal through this County; and we have the satisfaction to state, that we have not been disappointed in those facilities in the County of Limerick which we anticipated.—The summit level commences near Ballycough, in this County, and continues from thence to within a mile and half of Buttevant, and half a mile of Lisfarral, continuing on the verge of a very large turf bog, called the Red Bog, and passing by the village of Milford, proceeds nearly in a direct line to the lands of Coolma, about four miles south of Croome, taking in an extent of twenty-three Irish miles without a lock. Upon a future occasion we shall be more circumstantial.

LIMERICK, MARCH 12.

Charles McDonnell, Esq. is elected Member in Parliament for Yarmouth, in the room of P. Murray, Esq. who has accepted the Stewardship of Handed in the County of Berks, England.

Twenty-six Irish members voted in favour of the Prince of Wales's claims. Among those we observe the following names with which this neighbourhood are more immediately acquainted, viz. C. S. Oliver, and William Odell, Esqs.—Charles Verker, Esq.—Sir Edward O'Brien, Bart.—Charles McDonnell, Esq.—and the 4 Latouches. The Post Masters General have been pleased to appoint Kilmallock to be a Post Town.

Yesterday morning Patrick Cronan, was found hanged in a tree at the end of a lane, opposite Cale-street; and it is supposed must have caused his death.

This day will end the session of the Court of Sessions, and the effects, is the 15th inst.

The County was delighted to have a national tribunal for dignified purposes—a Grand Jury, and the local consequence, could not be exceeded;

March 1803. This appeared to have been a principal in that bloody case: the learned Judge said, in pronouncing sentence, that he never felt so little pain in discharging this awful part of his duty; and a sentiment of satisfaction seemed to pervade the whole Court, at seeing a Principal in that massacre convicted, though at the end of three years, in so satisfactory a manner:—Upon this trial a very extraordinary circumstance occurred:—a man, who admitted to have been present at the massacre, appeared as a witness for the prisoner at the bar—but as this man's fate is yet undecided, we shall abstain from all commentary as to him, only to observe, that we hear his defence is, that he was forced to the massacre by Patrick Ahern, who sought revenge against Boland, then a Tythe Professor; Boland having fold a cow of Ahern's under a decree, for tythes obtained against him in the Civil-Bill Court.—Whether this man was under coercion or not, may hereafter appear; but it is now unquestionably true, that the dreadful carnage of the Bolands' was occasioned by the circumstances above stated.

The same day a most salutary example took place in the conviction of one Mortell, for perjury, who after having given informations of a most ferocious outrage, contradicted every word of those informations, upon the trial at the last sittings.

On Thursday Michael Carrol was acquitted after a trial which lasted seven hours, for entering by right, the house of Thomas Hanrahan, of Glin, and flogging the said Hanrahan, in consequence of some informations he gave the Knight of Glin.

We cannot close this article without paying a tribute to the severe patience with which Mr. Baron Smith, during eight days painful investigation, tried every cause, and scrutinized every fact.—But above all, for the exemplary diligence with which he laboured every circumstance, that tended in the lightest degree to evince the innocence of the prisoners, being in fact what the Constitution in theory requires him to be, Advocate for the unhappy men who stood at his bar.—In paying him this tribute, we presume not to speak our own sentiments, for we know that we speak the sentiments of the country.

We understand this awful process is to be closed by public executions, which will be attended by every gentleman in the county, upon the call of the High Sheriff; and we trust the whole may furnish an example, that will prevent the occurrence of such another, but above all, that it will establish the efficacy, the dignity, the certainty, the superiority and the justice of that glorious Tribunal which has been handed down to us by our ancestors, and which we can never depart from without uncertainty and confusion.

The Execution of the Convicts will take place in this County, as follows: Philip Upton and James Dee, to be hanged on Wednesday next, at Hospital.—William Regin and William Shearman, to be hanged at Patrick's-well, on Saturday next.—Denis Coffee, Timothy Coffee, and Edw. Bancks, to be hanged at Honey-Pound, near Croome, same day.—and Mortough Ahern, to be hanged at Manister, same day, and his body to be brought back to the County Hospital for dissection.

In the City Court, it fortunately fell to the lot of the Hon. Justice Osborne to preside; there were however a great number of trials of the most ferocious charges, and cases of extreme intricacy brought forward,—to the honour of the Sheriffs, H. P. Carroll, and Ab. Russell, Esqs. the Jurors impannelled, and their regular attendance, required no intinctions of fines; and it is the opinion of Gentlemen who have for a series of years attended our Court, that a more dispassionate, cool, and upright Judge never sat on that Bench.

This week, Mr. Waton received for the use of the Dispensary, one Guinea, from Mr. Thomas Murray, Grocer, of Mary-street, received by him as an Arbitrator appointed on a trial in the City Court.—He also received yesterday, from John C. Hiffernan, Esq. Foreman on a Co. Record Jury, 1l. 14s. 1d. to be applied for charitable purposes.
