A Forge at West Water-Gate fell in a few days since, in consequence of which, a Family of eight Persons, who unfortunately happened to have been all at their accustomed employments at the time, are reduced to great distress; the poor man who was their chief support, thro' his exertions to save the rest, has been very much bruised and severely hurt, and has since been unable to earn bread either for them or himself.—A small matter would now re-establish him, and afford him the means of renewing his industrious pursuits.—The public are respectfully informed, that Wm. Fosbery, Esq; Charlotte's-Quay, Messrs. A. Watson and D. F.
G. Mahony, will receive what they may think proper to give towards the relief of the unfortunate industrious Family.
