Cork, Feb. 6.—Yesterday arrived at Cork, his Majesty's Sloop Argus, Hon. Captain H from a cruize.

A very melancholy rumour of th<sup>at</sup> has caused a general dejection in this C<sup>ity</sup> is reported that one of the Waterford P<sup>osts</sup>, with five mails on board, has been lost. Painful to contemplate an uncertainty of this <sup>kind</sup>, which must excite so general a sensation, <sup>we</sup> are not without hopes that this information ultimately prove to be unfounded.—It has further reported, that a Leeward Island M<sup>ail</sup> also a Lisbon Mail, have incurred a similar <sup>loss</sup>.—C. M. C.

Died.—Suddenly on Saturday <sup>at</sup> George's-
