under our last Limerick head, we cannot be induced to publish his strictures:—we have gone sufficiently far in pointing out what may become a general loss —Personal grievances can be redressed in a different manner than resorting to Publick Prints;— it was never the Characteristic of the Limerick Chronicle, to admit such Publications.

It is said Government have directed six new Regiments of the Line to be raised immediately in Ireland. The following Noblemen and Gentlemen, it is understood, have got letters of service as Colonels, with temporary rank: Lords Cunningham, Boyle, and Mathew, the Knight of Kerry, and Mr. Hume, M. P. for the Co. Wicklow.

On Thursday night last, four Ewes, the property of Wm. Hunt, Esq; on the Lands of Friarstown, were barbarously ripped open, and their carcases, with seven Lambs which they contained, left in the field.—See Advertisement.

Last week, David Roche, of Carass, Esq; as Foreman of a Special Jury, in the County, disposed of 12 Guineas, he received, in the following manner:—Mr. Plummer, for the relief of a Poor Family, 4l. 11s.; Fever Hospital, 4l. 11s.; Co.
Debtors, 4l. 11s.
