 Same evening, Col. Vereker set off for Dublin on his way to attend his duty in the Imperial Parliament.
 Yesterday was committed, by the Hon. John Maffy, to the County Gaol, Michael Daly, Labourer, charged with throwing several stones at Loughlin M'Nemara, and his son, Martin, on Sunday last, by which the latter received a desperate wound, of which his life is much endangered; he was escorted to gaol by a guard of Capt. Hon. J.
 Maffy's Corps of Cahirconlish Infantry.
 The right of Prizage on all Wines imported into this Kingdom, an old Grant of the Crown to the Earls of Ormond, but which had been for a considerable time possessed by the Commissioners of his Majesty's Revenue, has been lately restored to the present Earl, who has appointed Ralph and Thomas Westropp, Esqrs. of this City Collectors of Prizage at this Port.
 Since last publication, Mr. Watson received for the Family in distress—from a Country Gentleman, 5 Guineas; an old Soldier, 6 Shillings; five Ladies and Gentlemen, 1l. 16s.—last night, from a Lady, one Guinea; and as this Paper was going to press 1l. 14s. 1½d. from a Lady in the country.
 The following Benefactions have been received since our last, for the relief of the above family:— By the hands of Archd. Hill, from George Maffy, Esq; 1l. 2s. 9d.; Mrs. Wm. Finch, 1l. 2s. 9d.;
