

benefactor to the poor.

Irish Stocks, May 7.— $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. Gov. Deb. 67—ditto 5 per cent. 89 $\frac{1}{2}$ —Grand Canal Loan, 6 per cent. 96 $\frac{1}{2}$.

EXCHANGE—Dublin on London 15 $\frac{3}{4}$.

LIMERICK, MAY 9.

The portion of booty, in the purest gold, to General Lake, by taking the single city of Agra, amounted to 36,000l.—Colonel St. Leger's proportion 4000l.—and each of the Captains 2000l.

Captain Furnell, has received a Letter from Sir E. B. Littlehales, expressing His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's satisfaction in the additional instance of the Loyalty and Zeal of his Corps the Manister Rangers, in their offer of serving in any part of Ireland, in case of Invasion.

On Saturday night, a fire broke out in the house of Denis Kennelly, Breeches-maker, on Baal's-Bridge, which fortunately was got under by the exertions of some persons passing by; but not until his wife was so miserably burned, as to linger in torture until Monday, when she expired.

Sunday evening the body of a drowned Sailor, much disfigured, was taken up near Mr. Kiggell's

Quay. ^{Sanate relative to the establishment of the}

Monday last two young Gentlemen who were cast away in the ships Ford, and Sebastiana, part of the unfortunate convoy, under Captain Dixon, of His Majesty's Ship Apollo, the 2d of April last, on the coast of Portugal, arrived at our Quay, in the schooner Bon Successo, of St. Ubes, laden with wine, cork wood, &c. in 13 days from Oporto,—from them we learn, that there were several vessels whose entire crews and passengers were saved, but that their distress was beyond conception,—their property, cloths, and every valuable article at once sunk in the ocean!

At 10 o'Clock yesterday morning, part of the Garrison of this City, consisting of the 2d Light Brigade, 45th Regt. of Foot, the Royal Tyrone, and Royal Meath Regiments of Militia, marched to the North Liberties, where they went through the manoeuvres of a sham battle, in a most capital manner, under the direction, and command, of General Payne:—they returned to their respective Barracks at 6 o'clock in the evening.

With real concern, we hear of the death of

EDWARD
Has just received from London, White Clover, of the best quality; and also a quantity of Bags and Pockets, and at the House Broad-street, Limerick
(c) Roscre

Mr. MARTIN
the Interest of the which he now lives. said House.

Mr. WALTER
the first day of May House in Patrick-street
(c) I

NEW CLOVER &
FOR Sale at Harvey of best Red and White Seed, which will be sold
(3w) Limerick

TO THE
JAMES RYAN has a whole of his Fashionable An experienced Shop

AUCTION
TO be sold by Auctioneers, at the House in the street, now occupied by the said Concern has many to render it equally well adapted for a private Family. The sale will commence at 10 o'clock. JOHN RYAN
Limerick, May 9, 1824

JOHN DAWSON
WILL shew his TUB Mount, near Goolin, 31st inst. Mr. White will shew his Heifers, and a Bull that won the Honeyborne last year.
Spring-

STRA
FROM Ballinveala, in the County of Kerry, on Thursday the 26th inst. a Mare, eleven hands high,