

Several outward bound East Indiamen are arrived at the Mother Bank to wait convoy, and to take out troops. The 17th Regiment of Foot, now quartered in the Isle of Wight, will embark on board this fleet for Bengal.

The Lord Bishop of Limerick, &c. we hear, intends holding his annual Visitation for Kerry, at Tralee, on the 6th of June next.

Saturday last, a small boat, conveying passengers from Glynn to Mohill, was hailed by the First Lieutenant of the Gorgon frigate, stationed in this harbour;—the signal, as is asserted, not being noticed, could not be obeyed, on which unfortunately a shotted gun was discharged from the Gorgon, which killed one of the Men in the boat. We hear that the Lieutenant has been put under arrest by the Captain of the Gorgon.
