Tuesday evening, Mr. John Connell, Midship-man in the Impress service, was unfortunately tripp-ped on one of the broken pathways, which disgrace a great part of Newtown-Pery;—in attempting to recover himself, he fell and broke his right thumb, which was obliged to be amputated, on which he got a lock jaw: his death is hourly expected.

On Wednesday last General Sir E. Coote, accompanied by Lord Gardner, Earl of Cork, &c. laid the first stone of the splendid Fortifications to be erected at Spike Island.

Resolutions were unanimously entered into, relative to the proposed Alterations in the Corn Laws, at a numerous meeting of Freemen and Freeholders at the Thols, on Thursday.—See Advertisement.

Charleville Races will commence on the 2d July;
great sport expected.—For Articles see Advertisement.
