LIMERICK, JUN 4

The Mayor earnestly calls on the Clergy, Church-Wardens, High and Petty Constables, to assist him in keeping the Sabbath Day, Holy.— He recommends them walking at different times in their respective Parishes, and taking down the Names of those who have the Shops open, for the purpose of selling Goods; also such as expose Meat for sale; and making a return to him the day following, when he will punish them as far as the Law admits: it must be obvious, that the Mayor and his Officers cannot for will detect Offenders, being too well watched.

We are informed from authority, that the Navigation from this City to Portumna, will meet with no obstruction, until about the 22d Inst. when the works at Killaloe will commence.

Last week, Arthur Dickoo, Esq; youngest son to Samuel Dickson, Esq; of Newtown-Pery, took his Degrees, in Pembroke-College, Oxford.

Friday last, Michael Murnane, of Cahirconlin Sub-Constable, riding to this City, was attacked a number of Countrymen, near Raleighstown, who knocked him off his horse with a stroke of a stick and when down inhumanly beat out his brains.

Committed on Sunday last, by Edmond F Gerald, Esq; to the Co. Gaol, Thomas O'Don charged with the murder of the above man (M Murnane); also with having assaulted and Patrick Gleeson; houghing and killing a Mare property of Martin Enright.

Sunday evening, an alarming fire broke St. Francis's-Abbey, which materially injure houses, and was not got under until most of Furniture therein were destroyed.

Yesterday the Quarter Sessions for this City opened before George Smyth, Esq; Recorder when a Grand Jury was sworn in, as well as following Market Jurors:—
