LIMERICK, AUGUST 29.

Sir Hugh Dillon Maffy, Bart. arrived from England, at his Seat at Donags, on Saturday last.

On Sunday last, as the Rev. William Galwey, was proceeding from his House to Abington Church, he was fired at from behind a ditch by Daniel Connell;—fortunately the wretched Assassin failed in his design, he was apprehended, brought to this City by a few of the neighbouring Gentlemen, and committed to the County Gaol by John Evans, of Ashrow, Esq.—See Advertisements.

On Sunday last, a fine Boy about eight years old, incautiously leaning over the Parapet of his Father's House in William-street, unfortunately fell into the Area, for some moments his life was despaired of, but by immediate surgical assistance, we have the pleasure to say hopes are entertained of his recovery.

On Sunday night, eight sheep, the property of Mr. Thomas O'Halloran, of Ballycunneen, Co. Clare, were killed by some Villains, who, after stripping them of the entire Fat, left the Carcasses on the lands; it is hoped that those nefarious wretches will be apprehended, as circumstances are known which will probably lead to discovery.

The great Wool Fair of Ballinastoe which ended a few days since, was well attended, a large quantity offered for sale, and went off, as we are informed, at from 16s. 6d. to 17s. 6d. per stone.

BIRTH.—On Thursday last, the Lady of Robert Westropp, of Fort-Ann, Esq; High Sheriff of the County of Clare, of a Daughter.

DIED.—On Monday last, in Mary-street, much regretted, Mr. Denis Ryan, an extensive Currier.

—Yesterday, at Killaloe, after a lingering illness, which he bore with christian resignation, Mr. Nat. Ryan, son to Mr. Roger Ryan, Apothecary.

At Roslínch, Co. Tipperary, Mrs. Head, widow of George Head, Esq; of said place; she was to the young the best example, and to the old the brightest ornament.

No Exports since our last.

MARKET PRICES, Corrected from Official Returns.—Butter, Full Bounds, 1st quality, 92s.; 2d, 90s.; 3d, 84s.—Coarse Casks, 1st quality 90s.;
