LIMERICK, OCTOBER 3.

The Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, has been pleased to appoint Richard Smyth, Jun. of Smythfield, Esq; to be Justice of the Peace for the County of Limerick.

Friday evening, the Right Hon. the Lord High Chancellor Lady Redesdale, and Suite, arrived at Scragg Hotel, in Cork, on their return from the Lakes of Killarney, and next morning, his Lordship went to view the Forts of that harbour.

On the subject of the death or murder of Haleran, the trait, as stated in Saturday's Chronicle, original in the desertion of one Fennell, a Drummer in a Yeoman Corps of this City, whom the rebelling Party persisted in detaining contrary to the wish of his friends.

On Saturday night last, the house, offices, hay, and oats of Mr. Edward Kenny, of Dyfart, in the County Clare, were maliciously set on fire by some evil disposed persons, which consumed the entire with the household furniture.
