James Caulfield.—Treasurers, Messrs. Maunien.
Same day, the Common Council of this City, elected Aldermen Joseph Crips, Ralph Westropp, jun. and Arthur Vincent, to be Charter Justices for the ensuing year, after which, they were sworn into office, at the City Court-House, as were a number of Citizens as High Constables.

Yesterday morning, John Mac Donnell, an industrious honest Carpenter, while at work in a Building, at Newtown Pery, was suddenly seized with sickness, which, in a few minutes, terminated in death;—He was the entire support of a very aged mother and sister, who reside in the King's Island.

Yesterday the Right Worshipful Robert Briscoe, Esq; Mayor, sent Patrick Prendergast and Mathew M'Mahon, two able fellows, (who have been notorious for misconduct) on board the Tender, in our River;—we hope his Worship will persevere in thus assisting his Majesty's Navy,—and thereby give an opportunity to many a brave Idler, of making his Fortune.

Yesterday Alderman Westropp gave the Treasurer of the House of Industry, Three Guineas for the use of that Charity.

Some malicious villain or villains, broke into the Garden of Benjamin Friend, Esq; in Thomas-It Newtown-Pery, and destroyed almost every Tree Shrub, &c. therein.—See Advertisement.

No Exports since our last.

MARRIED.—A few days since, in Cork, John O'Callaghan, of this City, Esq; Attorney, to Miss Wife, daughter of Francis Wise, of Cork, Esq.—
On Sunday last, Mr. Joseph Storey, Spirit Factor, to the agreeable Miss Allison, daughter of the late Mr. Abel Allison, of this City, Cabinet-Maker.

DIED.—In July last, at Surinam, West Indies, of the yellow fever, Mrs. Loftie, wife of Captain Loftie, of the 16th Regt. of Foot; also his infant daughter.—A few days ago, at Bellogh, in the County Londonderry, after a tedious illness, Mrs.
Pitt, wife to George Pitt, Esq; and wife of the late Godfrey Hemsworth, of this City, Esq.—Last Saturday, in Cork, universally lamented, John Creaghe Brasier, of Creagh-Castle, Co Cork, Esq; second son to Kilner Brasier, Esq.
