

On Sunday night last, a most daring outrage was committed at the Pound of Six Mile Bridge, in the County of Clare.—See Advertisement.

The Right Worshipful Robert Briscoe, Esq; Mayor, fined five Publicans Five Pounds each, for selling Liquor on the Sabbath Day; half of which Penalties were given to the Informers, and the remainder, being Twelve Pounds, Ten Shillings, was handed by his Worship to the Treasurer of the House of Industry, for the use of that charity.

The unaltered resolution of our present worthy Chief Magistrate, to prevent the sale of Spirituous liquors, by Unlicensed Venders, has rendered him popular among those in the same trade who respect the Laws;—but a more desirable popularity is attached to his inflexibility in punishing those Venders of Spirituous Liquors, who in despite of his frequent cautions, are convicted of selling it on the Sabbath Day.—The numerous Poor in the House of Industry, at least, do not find fault with their obstinacy.

COMMITTED.—Yesterday, by Richard Smyth, Esq; to the County Jail, John Ryan, charged with having in his possession, timber which he could not account for; he was conveyed to this City by a detachment of the 71st Regt. stationed at Patrick's-Well, in this County.

MARRIED.—On Tuesday last, at Askeaton Church, in this County, by the Rev. Gustavus Wybrants, Thomas Tuthill Villiers, of this City, the most beautiful and accomplished Miss Stack, daughter of the late John Stack, of Ballyconry, the County Kerry, Esq.

DIED.—Last Tuesday night, in the prime of life, at Ballyclough, near this city, Mr. Francis Blackwell, Coachmaker, a most dutiful son, affectionate brother, and faithful diligent apprentice.
