proceeded to sea, but the destination is not known.

The Races at Charleville which will commence on the 9th of next month, are expected to afford great amusement to the Amateurs of the Turf.— We hear that a number of capital horses have been already entered.

This morning a number of very fine Lads, recruits for the Limerick City Regiment, marched hence for Ballinrobe, their head-quarters. Altho' only a few weeks have elapsed since the orders for augmentation, by the active exertions of Lieut. Col.
Gough, and the other Officers here, a considerable progress has been made towards compleating the Regiment.
