

from our London Correspondents by Express :

MONS, Monday May 6.

ed the House, that he had of thanks to the Commission, and that he had received expressing their high sense of shed a mark of honour.

to make his promised consideration his Majesty's of that House relative to he was beginning to Add, he had a communication on the subject of this motion supersede the necessity of the proceeding in it.

on is understood to be the e having been, at his own d from the list of Privy ed from all the offices and held at the pleasure of the a rose and observed, that if had any thing to communicate subject of Lord Melville, opportunity of doing so in a sub- bate. But whether he had no difference with regard to notice of bringing forward, on proceeding in. The went to state his reasons to at House interfering for the s sense of Lord Melville's propriety of his being sub- ber of his Majesty's Coun- ote of the House of Com- m unfit for such a situation

d not concluded his speech, ut closed his letter.] D.E.P.

Yesterday Messrs. O'Grady and Baylee, of the Custom-House, gave A. Watson, Three Guineas, half for the House of Industry, remainder for the Female Orphan School;—a gratuity from a Gentleman who had dropped a considerable Parcel of Bank Notes, which had been found by them.

The Treasurer of the Fever Hospital acknowledges the receipt of Three Guineas from a Lady, by the Rev. Dean Flinn.

MARRIED.—The Rev. John Armstrong, of Ennis, to Miss Young, daughter of the late Robert Young, Esq; of Castlereagh, County Roscommon.— At Parsonage, King's Co. a few days ago, Thos. Palmer, Esq; of Kilbalaskea, to Miss Huleatt, daughter to the Rev. John Huleatt, of Parsonage, aforesaid.—Last Thursday, by her father, the Rev. Richard Chadwicke, at Doon Church, the Rev. Robert Armstrong, of Emly, to Mrs. Kiffane, relict of William Kiffane, of Skalaheene, County Tipperary, Esq.

DIED.—A few days ago, in Mary's-street, Mrs. D'Arcy, relict of James D'Arcy, late of Cooly-brown, in this Co. Esq.—On Wednesday evening, in same street, much regretted, Mrs. Vokes, relict of the late Simon Vokes, of this City, Esq; and sister to the late Honourable Serjeant Wood.— Thursday last, at Castle-Connell, sincerely lamented by her numerous and respectable family, Mrs. Barclay, relict of the late Thomas Barclay, of Ballyartney, in the County Clare, Esq.—Yesterday morning, after a few minutes illness, Mrs. Welsh, wife to Mr. John Welsh, of Shannon-street, Spirit Factor.

EXPORTS since our last.—Jessy, for Liverpool: 673 barrels oats, 1 dozen matts, by Robt. Rodger.—Hibernia, for London: 479 tierces pork, 274 barrels pork, 147 tierces beef, 360 barrels beef, 100 bales bacon, 81 pipes and puncheons Irish Spirits, by D. Lyons.—Concord, for Liverpool: 1101 barrels oats, by Crilly and Bindon.—Katty, for Dublin: 1189 barrels oats, by J. O'Sullivan.—Union, for Newry: 780 barrels wheat, by J. & near Bank- lives in, on House as repair.

J A
Ha
Kenneth M
90 T
5 Ho
A pa
A fe
Which the

NEW JOS
per the A GRASS
and 58 Ba ing a Car
from Rye.
He has
Market-H
Pearl, an

ARRI

Cabine
R ICHA
from Chimney and large
—These Fashions. be but a f
Dublin P
fold chea