The Lord Chancellor has been pleased to appoint William H. Ferrar, Esq; of Larne, in the county of Antrim, a Justice of the Peace and of the Quorum for said county.

The following authentic melancholy facts, it is hoped, will be sufficient to call forth the Commiseration of the Public, in relief of the distressed Objects:—A poor Woman in this City, after being ill since Sunday morning, was brought to Bed last night; in two hours afterwards her husband died suddenly in the same Bed she lay;—the wretched Woman is now without any means whatever of support for herself and four Orphans, the eldest of
