on Wednesday evening, states, that dispatches were received at Plymouth on Friday evening last, from Lord Nelson, stating that his Lordship was in sight of the Combined Fleets off Ferrol.

On Sunday night, some malicious ruffians destroyed a newly planted Orchard of Jer. Prendergast, in the south suburbs of Clonmel, by breaking the trees completely across.

This morning, about four o'clock, two Chairmen, Thomas Cooney, and Garret Moloney, quarrelled on their stand near the Exchange, when the former stabbed Moloney with a Penknife in the heart, of which wound he instantly expired;—The Right Worshipful Mayor, held an Inquest on the deceased, who returned a Verdict, Wilful Murder, against Cooney:—who has been committed to the City Jail.

The Yeoman troops of this City are to parade on Monday next, precisely at 10 o'clock in the morning, for the Monthly Inspection, by the Brigade Major;—and on Monday, the 26th inst. they are to have a Grand Field Day, and are to fire ball cartridge.

Since our last, A. Watton, Treasurer to the House of Industry, received One Guinea from Richard Taylor, jun.
Esq; for said Charity; also, from George Maffy, Esq; of Glinwilliam, as Foreman on County Record Juries, three Guineas and a Half, to be given to a distressed Lady whom he named; and from William Hunt, Esq; Foreman of a City Record Jury, two Guineas, for the House of Industry, and Two Guineas for the Fever Hospital.—And from John Westropp, Esq; Foreman of a Record Jury, One Guinea for the House of Industry, and One for the Fever Hospital.

A Meeting of the Subscribers to the Female Orphan School is requested at Mrs. Robert Maunell's house, on Monday next, at One o'clock. The Treasurer acknowledges the receipt of Two Guineas, by the hands of George Maffy, Esq; for the use of said Charity.
