

about the walls. Frederick was obliged to raise the siege of this castle in 1742.

The fortress of Olmutz that La Fayette's companions in misfortune experienced a long imprisonment.

abounds in a kind of buck wheat, the country people make bread.—Beverage is beer and cyder; wine is scarce in the districts, but of a very indifferent quality. They have abundance of cattle, number of sheep, plenty of fowl and game, which they supply Vienna. Agriculture is their principal employment; saffron and flax, however, are principal objects of cultivation.—Agriculture is carried on in cyder, and the principal fruits; in fact, it may be said that the means of subsistence in Moravia are abundant of a good quality.

Country has also to boast of extensive manufactures: alum, potash, iron, and various kinds of iron wares, linens, and cloths, painted cloth, and a variety of other objects of their principal manufactures. The mountains are towards Silesia.—Copper, and lead, mixed with a quantity of iron, is found in Moravia.

Freedom prevails in those countries: the people are well clothed, and comfortably should the following, which has been my observation, merit a place in your Publication, it is much at your service.

Limerick Gazette.

AMICUS.

to enjoy a merry Christmas.

Amica, in his "Christmas Caution," says "the weather is unusually cold at present, and therefore good fires, good eating, and good drinking, are unquestionably agreeable, and measure necessary. Fuel is laid in abundance, and generous liquors for instruction is fattening for slaughter; the ox is fat to feed; the mutton, the venison, and minced meats are in a state of perfection. All this very right; all this very good, might well render it a time for rejoicing—a time of universal happiness.

loading our tables, and our stomachs with a wholesome variety of the richest and most content with plain and wholesome food, with a quantity proportioned to our appetites; and let us consider, while we are eating and comfortably regaling, by a good and plentiful supply of superfluities, to excess, whether we are not becoming poor, but worthy, neighbours, and half-fed, and, perhaps, half-starved, by the inclemency of the weather, the miserable little ones are shivering in their rags, destitute even of the necessaries of life. Our retrenchments then let them be comfortable, and fed; and while we are becoming the depositories of what we are to disorder our own, their gratification, very differently employed, will be the season, and their Benefactors.

in our offspring the virtues of temperance and benevolence, instead of the vices of intemperance and excess; and thus secure to ourselves the health, as the approbation of our own bosoms, and thus qualified and entitled to enjoy a 'Merry

(see Mercantile Chronicle) are concerned in the Commercial List the following which must create considerable apprehension, that the fleet mentioned to have been fallen by the enemy, is that which sailed from in auid glory while appear, Red with vindictive flame, the terrors of her spear. Around her coast, fenced by her guardian main, Around Ierne's kindred shore. Hark! loud threats to her baffled train In yells of desperation roar. Along the hostile deep they vainly try From Britain's thundering barks to fly; Their fleets, the Victor's trophy, captiv'd ride, In future battles doom'd to combat on our side.

Seas, where deathless bards of yore, Singing to the silver tide, Wafted loud from shore to shore Grecian art and Roman pride, Say, when Carthage learn'd to vail To mightier foes her lofty sail, Say, when the man of Athens broke With daring prow the Median Tyrant's yoke, Saw ye so bold, so free a band As Nelson led by Cadiz strand; What time, at George's high behest, Dread in terrific vengeance dress'd, Fierce as the whirlwind's stormy course, They pour'd on Gallia's guilty force; And Trafalgar saw Britannia's flag unfurl'd Wave high as Victor's flag o'er the World.

See floating friendly in the wind, The Russian Eagle with the Crescent join'd, And shall on earth Rome's tow'ring Eagle lie, With ruffled plumage, and with proud eye? Imperial Austria, 'rouse! while Albion's fleet Sweeps stern oppression from the main, Send forth all thy legions to the embattl'd plain, Till savage inroad turn to foul defeat; Strike with united arm the blow, Lay the gigantic boaster low; O'er our astonished fields who tread, Deforming Nature, and defying God! So shall returning Peace again Delight the renovated plain; Peace, on the basis firm of Faith restor'd Wrung from Oppression's arm by Valour's conquering Sword!

BIRTHS.

At his house in Rutland-street, the lady of John Kennedy, Esq. Banker, of a son.
In George's-street, the lady of Brigadier-General Mitchel, of a daughter.
At his house in Bank-Place, the lady of Daniel Gabbett, Esq. of a daughter.
On Wednesday last, at her father's house in Rutland-street, the lady of Captain Thomas Brabazon Aylmer, of the 9th Regiment of Foot, of a son and heir.

DEATHS.

At his house at Summer-Lodge, in the county of Clare, Jonathon Mossell, Esq. a Gentleman of the strictest integrity, and most deservedly lamented.

LIMERICK MARKET PRICES.

Wheat, per stone, .....	1 8	—	1 10 1/2
Oats, per stone, .....	0 10 1/2	—	0 10 1/2
English Barley, per stone, .....	1 1 1/2	—	1 1 1/2
Bere, per stone, .....	0 10	—	0 11 1/2
Beef, per lb .....	0 4 1/2	—	0 5 1/2
Mutton, per lb .....	0 4 1/2	—	0 5
Veal, per lb .....	0 6	—	0 8
Pork, per Cwt .....	33 0	—	34 0
Whiskey, (wholesale) .....	8 6	—	9 0
Rough Tallow, per stone, .....	7 6	—	0 0
Salt, per Cwt .....	9	—	9 0
Flour, per Cwt .....	22 0	—	22 6
Mould Candles, per lb (in Boxes) .....	0 11	—	0 11 1/2
Dipped ditto, per lb .....	0 10	—	0
Soap, per stone, .....	8 0	—	8 6

Price of Limerick BUTTER.

In Firkins, .....	70s. — 60s. — 60s.
Casks, .....	50s. — 64s. — 58s.

CORK MARKET PRICES.

Wheat per bag of 20 stone, .....	34s. 0d. — 35s. 0d.
New Oats per barrel of 33 stone, .....	36s. 0d. — 41s. 0d.
Barley per barrel of 36 stone, .....	45s. 0d. — 00s. 0d.
Beef per pound, .....	5d. — 6d.
Potatoes, per weight of 21 lb. .....	5d. — 6d.
Pork per Cwt. .....	35s. 0d. — 36s. 0d.

EXPORTS SINCE OUR LAST.

Flora, for Greenock—40 tons and 16 cwt. oatmeal, 363 barrels oats, 50 cow hides, and 194 cwt. butter, by John Torrance Earl of Limerick, of Limerick, for London—1050 tierces and 300 barrels pork. by Dennis Lyons, jun.

Resolved, That the above Address be presented to High Sheriffs to Major-General PAYNE, and that together with his Answer, be published in the Co Dublin Evening Post, and the Limerick Papers.

A. C. STRETCH, }
BRYAN M'MAHON, } She

The Sheriffs having been requested to leave the Ct THOMAS MAUNSELL, Esq. having been called t

Resolved, That the Thanks of the Meeting be given to High Sheriffs, for their distinguished conduct in the

THOMAS MAUNSELL

Limerick, Dec. 23, 1

SIR,

We feel no small degree of pleasure, in having the opportunity to convey to your hands, the Resolutions this Day sent by the Bankers, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of the City, and we beg leave to assure you, that we most concur in their approbation of your Conduct during your Residence amongst us, and their very sensible regret intended Departure. With the highest sentiments of regard and esteem, we have the honor to remain, Sir, your and very humble Servants.

A. C. STRETCH, }
BRYAN M'MAHON, } She

Limerick, 26th December, 1

Gentlemen,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 23d instant, accompanying the Resolutions of the Bankers, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of the City of Limerick.

I beg to assure you, Gentlemen, that the very high and flattering expressions of approbation on my conduct which I have had the honor to command this portion of the West District, contained in those Resolutions, and the confidence in me from so highly respectable a Body, are most gratifying to my feelings; and it affords me a sincere satisfaction, that the humble services have been thought in any way useful to the tranquillity of this City or the Country at large.

I request the favor of you therefore, to embrace the first opportunity of assuring the Bankers, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of the City of Limerick, that I am very sensibly, not only the kind expressions of regard which have testified at my Departure from this District; but also proud of the testimony of approbation with which I have been pleased to mark my public conduct, at all times, I am anxious thus publicly to express my warm acknowledgments, for the great attention and invariable civilities I have at all times experienced, since my first residence in this City.

Allow me, Gentlemen, to return you particular thanks, for the very obliging and kind terms in which you have conveyed to me the Resolutions of the City of Limerick, and I have the honor to remain, Gentlemen, your obedient, and obliged humble servant,

W. PAYNE, M

To A. C. Stretch, and }
B. M'Mahon, Esqrs. } Sheriffs.

WILLIAM-STREET, BOARDING-SCHOOL

LOUISA RUSSELL

Respectfully acquaints her Friends and the Public, that she has removed to WILLIAM-STREET, and that her *** VACATION will end the 6th Instant.

TO BE SOLD,

An extremely fashionable well built CHARIOT, with a Barouch Seat and Harness complete, whole nearly as good as new; the Harness made by Gibson either for Driving or 1

FOUR HORSES, of different descriptions

Apply to Mr. BARRY, Stationer, Patrick-street, or to the PRINTER hereof.

Limerick, Jan. 3,

THE SECOND STATE LOTTERY