by suicide disowns all ideas of a future state, and proves that his only aim is annihilation, or "sinking into nought."—What a chaotic perspective! what a nothingless desire for a rational, a thinking, or an inquisitive being. The thought is mean, dastardly, and unworthy of a man, and consequently reprobated by the virtuous and enlightened pen of Dr. Young, in the following beautiful and comprehensive lines:

Nature's first wish is endless happiness; Annihilation is an after thought, A monstrous wish, unborn till virtue dies.

A few days ago, died, in Kelly's-lane, Anover O'Brien, cooper.—The circumstances preceding the death of this man, strongly shew the baneful effects ultimately awaiting a propensity to spirituous liquors. Having returned home in an insensible state of inebriety, he reclined on a bed. After a considerable time, his family, when dinner was ready, proceeded to awaken him, but to their astonishment and grief found him lifeless!—His death is attributed to the pressure of his cravat, which denied free and frequent respiration.

Committed yesterday, by Christopher Tuthill, Esq. one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, to the County Jail, John Fitzgerald, John Sheehan, and Daniel Slattery, taken up as vagrants; they were brought in by a party of the Faha yeomen cavalry: The active demeanour unceasingly marking Capt. Tuthill's official character, stands entitled to the warmest commendations.—We confess ourselves highly indebted to him on this occasion, for removing from the peaceful habitations of humble industry, persons of no ascertained place of residence, and of no ostensible mode of subsistence. We strongly recommend to each Magistrate to direct unwearied vigilance to the detection of similar nuisances in their respective jurisdictions.—The adoption of this desirable system of Magisterial regard to the security of property, and prevention of idleness, would be extremely salutary and praise-worthy. It would lead to the furtherance of morality and sobriety, and consequently, often relieve us from the unpleasant duty of announcing outrages resembling those stated in a preceding number.

Just as this Paper was putting to Press, three men were taken up by Denis Lenegan, Esq. for uttering forged notes—They are at present under our Chief Magistrate's examination.—We should advert to the utility of this laudable vigilance, could our limits indulge our inclination.

Joseph Gubbins, Esq. of Kenmare-Castle; has been sworn in High Sheriff for this County for the ensuing year. The Sheriff's Office, will be attended to as usual, No. 2, Patrick-street, Limerick.

The London Gazette of Tuesday, contains a Proclamation for a General Fast, to be observed throughout England and Ireland, on Wednesday, the 26th of February next, for the purpose of imploring the divine blessing and assistance on his Majesty's arms, for the restoration of peace and prosperity.

The Gazette also contains an Order in Council, prohibiting the exportation of saltpetre, arms, and ammunition.

The Gazette also contains an Order in Council directing that the quarantine laid upon all ships, persons, goods, and merchandizes which may arrive in any of the ports of this kingdom, of the isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or from any of the ports in the States of Pennsylvania or New York, be taken off.
