Messina, April 7.

MORNING LINE ORDERS.—Major Gen. John Stuart requests the General and Field Officers and heads of departments of the army to meet him at half past eleven o'clock this morning at the entrance to head-quarters, in order to accompany his Excellency the Commander of the Forces to the place of his embarkation.

A company of grenadiers will be formed upon the Marine as a guard of honour to the General; and Major Lemoine, commanding the royal artillery, will post a brigade of twelve-pounders at some contiguous place, for the purpose of firing a salute of nineteen guns when his Excellency goes on board.

Bills to the amount of 250,000*l.* have been returned to Cork, Drogheda, and Limerick, in consequence of the failure of a great Irish House in the City; which, however, is expected eventually to make good all their engagements.

Arthroath April 30.—On Wednesday the 22d instant a very uncommon phenomenon was observed here between the hours of two and four P. M. A bright halo appeared round the sun of a very uncommon magnitude, diameter being 54 degrees; also a large luminous circle parallel to the horizon, diameter about 93 deg. its altitude equal to that of the sun. Its centre nearly in the zenith of Arthroath. The periphery of this circle passed directly through the centre of the sun; on the eastern part of this circle two beautiful parhelia were distinctly visible, as also two much more resplendent on the western part.

LIMERICK, MAY 20.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Plymouth to his Friend in this City, dated May 15, 1806:

"SIR,

"This morning the Active frigate arrived here with Sir H. Popham's first Lieutenant, whom he took out of a transport off Cape Finisterre, homeward bound.—He is gone express to the Admiralty with the news of one of the frigates under the command of Jerome Bonaparte, being taken at the Cape of Good Hope, he sent the frigate in, which came to anchor close by the Diomedé of 50 guns; all our fleet had Dutch colours flying, he says they are gone to India. The Powerful, that Sir J. T. Duckworth sent to India, has past the Cape some time before them.—Admiral Duckworth arrived here yesterday morning in the Superb."

On the 13th inst. Mr. Corry, presented to the House of Commons, two Petitions against the Limerick Taxation Bill; the one from the inhabitants of Newtown-Pery and Clare-street, and the other from the inhabitants of St. Francis's-Abbey, when both, were ordered to be taken into consideration on the second reading of the Bill.

The Clare sloop, from this port for Ennis, with teas, sugars, &c. foundered last night near Grass Island—crew saved.

BANKRUPTS.—Frédéric Le Maistre, of Sackville-street, Dublin, haberdasher; and William Holmes, 5f Poole-street, Dublin, cotton manufacturer, to surrender on the 28th and 29th instant, and 28th June next.

reigner, the Lady of an Officer of rank in the Hanoverian Brigade, was attempted to be robbed by a single foot pad, while passing the mountain with her two children, under the protection of an Officer of the same corps, who was wounded in her defence; but the fellow thought proper to decamp without effecting his purpose. A Gentleman of Waterford was also robbed yesterday morning, of his gold watch, &c. at the same place, and probably by the very same villain.—When this was known at Fermoy, a plan was laid by the Yeomanry of that place, for discovering, and securing alive, if possible, the perpetrators of such reiterated outrages, which began to render travelling so very unsafe. Two members of that Corps immediately took a post-chaise and hastened to the scene where so many robberies had been committed.

They had scarcely got up to the place, which goes by the name of Murdering Bridge, when a fellow, armed with a musket and pistols, fell exactly into the trap which was laid for him. He came forth, as usual, from his lurking place, made the Driver stop, and ordered the Yeomen to deliver their money, on pain of the usual forfeiture. Though their intention was merely to secure him, yet, as their own lives were now attacked, one of them shot him dead on the spot. The gold watch was found on him which he had taken that very morning.—From various circumstances it would appear, that this was the principal, if not the sole actor in these depredations; and the traveller, at least, will feel much obliged to the Fermoy Yeomanry, for ridding them of so troublesome a visitant, by a species of stratagem as ingenious in the plan, as cool and spirited in the execution.

BIRTH.—On Thursday last, at his seat, the Lady of Thomas F. Maunsell, of Ballybrood, in this county, Esq. a son and heir.

DIED.—Suddenly, on Sunday evening, in an advanced age, Mrs. Rebecca Mahony, of Mary-street, shopkeeper.—Same evening, at her seat at Belkelly, co. Clare, Mrs. Purdon, relict of Gilbert Purdon, Esq. a Lady most sincerely and deservedly lamented by a numerous and respectable family and acquaintance.—Yesterday morning, in the prime of life, much and deservedly lamented, Mrs. Barry, wife of Mr. James Barry, of Rockstown, in this county.—Last Sunday at Ashrow, in this county, Mrs. Pierce, wife of Alderman Pierce, late of this city; a lady much lamented by a numerous and respectable acquaintance.
