DEATHS.

Last week, in Cornwalis-street, at an advanced age, John Quin, esq brother to Thomas Quin, of Killmalogue, co.
 Tipperary, esq.
 At Breccles, near Walton, England, at the advanced age of 108 years, J Stubbing. He retained his faculties almost to the last, and has left four sons very far advanced in life.
 All the ground he occupied consisted of five acres of land, which supported him without obtaining parochial relief.
 At Linthanglee, near Jedburgh, Lieut.-Colonel Thomas Currie, of the Royal Marines, aged 74: he entered his Majesty's service in the year 1754, and was employed in almost every quarter of the world, and was in a number of engagements.
 At Paris, Mr. Retif de la Berrouze, in the 72d year of his age. This copious author wrote more than 100 volumes, which met with success; he had been a Journeyman Printer, and it is said, he set up one of his works without having ever written it. We have a similar instance of the composition of a very admirable work in Scotland, "The Illustration of Masonry" The ingenious author, was also a Journeyman Printer, and he set up the entire volume for the Press,
 without having previously written any part of it.
 Lately, at his son's house at Mitcham, John Jones, esq. of Cavendish-square, London, in the 90th year of his age.
 On Saturday se'night, at Totteridge, England, Mrs.
 Lewis, wife of James Lewis, esq. of Powis-place, London.
