

Following letter from London, dated Saturday evening, half-past six o'clock, has been received in Dublin:

With Joy I have to communicate the and unexpected information that NCH HAVE BEEN DEFEATED IN POLAND WITH THE LOSS OF 40,000 MEN!

upon the authority of a message from
 ... to the House of Commons this afternoon.

Irish gun-brig, Lieut. Hanchett, fell in
 ... night last with a very large French privateer, belonging to Bourdeaux, which
 ... for twenty-five minutes; but, owing
 ... sailing, the Privateer got off.—Lieut.
 ... is wounded, but not dangerously.

Wednesday last, Mr. Sheriff Mahony committed
 ... city jail, one Gilligan, a Butcher, for
 ... out of the Accomptant's office at Messrs.
 ... and Kennedy's Bank, the halves of
 ... notes, amounting to 166*l.* which were
 ... him when searched, concealed in his hat.
 ... Wednesday night, a man of the name of ... confined in our jail for debt and de-
 ... made his escape over the yard wall, by
 ... of a rope thrown him from the outside,
 ... Mill. We hear a reward will be offered
 ... apprehension.

Master of the Rolls appeared on Friday
 ... Dublin, for the first time; in his embroi-
 ... own, which is a very handsome one, and
 ... ported by a train-bearer. His Honor sat
 ... Court on that day.

Sunday morning, about the hour of ten
 ... two ruffians, armed, went to the house
 ... m Squib, at Fox's Deen, near Cashel,
 ... for some drink.—The only persons in
 ... were his two sisters, one of whom sus-
 ... the design of the villains, instantly, with
 ... presence of mind ran up stairs, and
 ... herself with a pistol and some ammu-
 ... returned to the hall, where the fellows,
 ... cked pistol to the throat of the other
 ... re vociferating with dreadful menaces
 ... she faced them with the most intrepid
 ... and, immediately on her presenting the
 ... e fellows fled with the utmost precipita-
 ... fired after them, but without effect.—
 ... lution was such, that she loaded the
 ... n, and pursued the ruffians, who in their
 ... escape, threw off, one his great coat,
 ... other his brogues, which she brought
 ... trophy.

Monday last, James Naughton, passing on
 ... road from Dublin to Bray, with a car
 ... with goods, was attacked near Merrion,
 ... en armed with pistols, who beat him,
 ... d him of what money he had about him,
 ... of the goods on the car, and shot his
 ... l. On the same night, Pierce Butler
 ... ked near the same place, by the same
 ... his money taken, and his person much
 ... d abused; and on Saturday evening, at
 ... ck, Ignatius Carr was attacked on the
 ... (near Donnybrook-bridge) by three
 ... n, supposed to be part of the above-
 ... gang, and robbed of some money and
 ... les; and on the same night a poor man,
 ... Athlone, was robbed of a few bank
 ... h comprised nearly his all. Ample re-
 ... offered by the Rathdown Association
 ... prehension of the offenders.

... of Arran-quay, Dublin, and three
 ... were stopped by the above gang, on
 ... ight, and experienced very ill usage.—
 ... e men was cut on the back of his neck.

... day se'nnight, soon after dark, two
 ... on horseback, were stopped on the
 ... road. Dublin, by a gang of footpads.

From the numberless applications that have been made for The Gazette of last past, and at the request of many of our Readers, we re-insert the LIMERICK NOSEGAY in our last page.

ADDRESS TO THE AUTHOR OF THE LIMERICK NOSEGAY.

In your Nosegay for Hymen, 'tis true you've collected
 An assemblage of Beauties, with caution selected,
 Each Flower, aptly chosen for harm and grace,
 Is express'd in each Maiden her sweet smiling face.—
 The Jessamine, Cowslip,—the Lily, Carnation,
 Justly attract and deserve admiration:
 The Mignonet, Lupin, and sweet Gillyflower,
 Have each o'er our hearts their own separate power;
 But the Rose is a Flower of so charming a kind,
 More than one I had thought in your Nosegay to find—
 Tho' the charms of G—h, sweet delights may inspire,
 There are others whose hearts other Roses desire:
 A Tree of sweet Roses in Thomas-street grows,
 Whose charms attractive, my pen can't disclose;
 Their beauty, their fragrance, cannot be out done;
 Just blooming, just blushing, just fit to be won—
 To the Bosom of Love—where they may be transplanted,
 When Hymen himself the permission has granted.

To the Editor of The Limerick Gazette, &c.

Sir—I was much pleased to see the agreeable Bouquet so neatly tied up in your last, and could wish that the Author of it would introduce a bundle of Male Twigs, to see how they would look on Paper.—Besides being an admirer of Botany and of Poetry, I should hope, by such an arrangement, comparing small things to great, to follow the mode of the illustrious Darwin, and by that means produce the Loves of the Plants in this City.—I am quite disinterested in this wish, being much beyond the Season of Blossom, but I love to see Youth in both Sexes innocently enjoy the rational gratifications of life, in prudence, modesty, and amiable conduct.

I am your's,
 WINIFRED WALLFLOWER.
