Grey Peas or Beans of each kind, which fetch prices—Oats is in tolerable supply, though heavy arrivals, and this article is full as dear Flour fully supports last prices.

LIMERICK, FEBRUARY 21.

LORD CLONCURRY v. SIR J. PIERS.

This was an action on the case, brought to recover damages, for Criminal Conversation with Plaintiff's Wife—and tried before Lord Chief Justice Downes and a Special Jury, in the Court of King's Bench, Dublin, on Thursday, the 19th of February, 1807.

Counsel for the Plaintiff, Solicitor General, Mr.
Ball, Mr. Burton, and Mr. Curran, jun.
For the Defendant, Mr. P. Burrows, Mr.
Johnston, and Mr. Scriven.

The pleadings were opened in the usual form by Mr. Curran. The damages were laid at One Hundred Thousand Pounds!!

The Jury returned a Verdict for the Noble Plaintiff, 20,000*l.* Damages; with Costs.

* Yesterday, at two o'clock in the afternoon, the remains of the Right Rev. Dr. M'Mahon, were taken from his house on Lock-Quay, to be interred in St. John's Church, attended by the most numerous and solemn procession witnessed for a long time in this city. The Roman Catholic Clergymen of the diocesses of Limerick and Killaloe, the Mayor, and a number of Gentlemen, preceded the hearse, (which was drawn by six horses), two by two, with scarfs and hat-bands, and were followed by several mourning carriages; most of the shops were shut when the funeral was passing, and every respect paid to the memory of that amiable and truly respectable Prelate.

We are informed, that the Lord High Chancellor was pleased, on Tuesday last, to supersede the Commission of Bankruptcy which had been issued against Messrs. Furnell, Woodmason, and Bevan, of this City, Bankers.
